SEVENTY YEARS OF SUCCESS.

Have proved without doubt that

ROWLANDS' MACASSAR OIL, KALYDOR, AND ODONTO

Are the three most invaluable TOILET
REQUISITES extant.

THE MACASSAR OIL,

Free from any poisonous or mineral admixture, is the best and safest Restorer and Beautifier of the Human Hair; it prevents Hair from falling off, cleanses it from Scurf and Dandriff, making it beautifully soft, pliable, and glossy. Price 3s. 6d., 7s., 10s. 6d. (equal to four small), and 21s. per bottle.

THE KALYDOR,

Cooling and soothing as it is, produces a SOFTNESS and DELICACY of SKIN; it eradicates all Tan Freckles and Cutaneous Eruptions, and produces a healthy purity of Complexion. Price 4s. 6d. and 8s. 6d. per bottle.

THE ODONTO

Preserves the Teeth, eradicates Tartar from them, and gives a pleasing fragrance to the Breath. Price 2s. 9d. per box.

Clark & Co.'s Steel Revolving Shutters

COLONEL HENDERSON'S REPORT.

The Chief Commissioner of Police, in his last Official Report, says the frequent Burglaries in and around the Metropolis arise from the insecure state of the window shutters and their fastenings. CLARK & Co.'s Shutters in one sheet of Steel, at 3s. 6d. per foot, as fixed at Sandringham, St. James's Palace, Scotland Yard, &c., afford the requisite protection, and can only be had from the Patentees, who will send experienced Workmen to give Estimates and Prospectuses, free of charge.

SHOOTING.

“All Shooting Boots should be Lace-ups and Waterproof.”—STONEHENGE, 59.

“MR. FAGG,—The Shooting Boots you sent me fit well, and are perfectly Waterproof.” “R. L.”

“I take this opportunity of saying that your Shooting Boots and Gaiters far surpass any that I have ever been able to procure.”

GAITERS

In Brown and Tan Flax, Black and Tan Leather, Box Cloth, &c., &c.

WALKING.

The reason why our Boots are such a comfort to Pedestrians is because they support the feet in their natural position, and do not hinder the free action of every joint, tendon, &c. With such Boots walking is a pleasure, “better than the gig; no man in a gig could have such an interest in the milestones; no man in a gig could see, or feel, or think, like merry users of their legs.”—CHARLES DICKENS.

CRICKET.

THE FINEST ASSORTMENT OF
IMPROVED BREECH-LOADERS.

The several important improvements of the last three years are now most successfully combined in our best guns for the present season.

The easy and delightful self-action of the mechanism, the self-closing double or treble grip, sound, and even more durable than the old pattern lever; self-raising, rebounding locks, always at half-cock whether you will or no, curtailing manipulation, and the most effective safeguard against accidental discharge ever applied to a fowling piece.

The excellence and advantages of these and other important additions may be fully explained at either of our establishments and shooting grounds.

HISTORY

OF THE

OFFICES OF THE SECRETARIES OF STATE,

1253 TO 1872.

THE earliest mention of a Secretary to The Sovereign occurs in the 37th year of the reign of Henry III, 1253.

There was only one Principal Secretary of State until the 30th year of the reign of Henry VIII, 1539, when the number was increased to two, both being of equal rank and authority.

Upon the union with Scotland, in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, 1708, a third Principal Secretary of State was added, viz., for Scotch Affairs, but this appointment ceased in January, 1746.

In the 8th year of the reign of George III, January 20, 1768, a Principal Secretary of State for the American or Colonial Department was added, who was styled "Secretary of State for the Colonies," but this appointment was abolished in 1782 (Act 25 Geo. III. c. 82).

At the time when only two Principal Secretaries of State existed, the duties were divided between the North and South Departments—the Northern Department, or Province, included the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Russia, &c.; and the Southern Department, or Province, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, and Turkey, &c.

In the 17th year of the reign of George III, March 27, 1782, the terms "Northern" and "Southern" were discontinued; when the duties were divided between the "Home" and "Foreign" Departments—the affairs of Ireland and the Colonies devolving upon the elder of the two Secretaries.

In the 29th year of the reign of George III, July 17, 1794, a Principal Secretary of State for War was appointed; and the business of the Colonies, which had hitherto been carried on at the Home Department, was transferred to that Secretary, March 17, 1801.

In the 17th year of the reign of Victoria, June 12, 1854, a Fourth Principal Secretary of State was appointed, when the business of the War Department was separated from the Colonial Department.

In the 22nd year of the reign of Victoria, September 2, 1858, on the abolition of the East India Company's Charter, a Fifth Principal Secretary of State was appointed for the Affairs of India.

There are now Five Secretaries of State, viz., for the Home, Foreign, Colonial, War, and India Departments.

Received the decoration of the "Albert Medal of the 1st Class," February 27, 1868, for the following act of gallantry in saving life at sea:—"On the night of the 7th Dec. last the French ship 'Nouveau Caboteur' was cast on shore in the Bay of Zurriola, on the north coast of Spain, during a gale of wind. The sea at the time was running so heavily that no boat would venture to put off. There was also a general belief that it was impossible for a boat to be of any service. At this crisis, the British Vice-Consul at San Sebastian, Mr. E. B. March, after unsuccessfully entreating some of the bystanders to accompany him, plunged into the sea, swam to the vessel, and succeeded in bringing a rope to land. The rope was then secured, and one of the crew came safely to shore along it; the second, however—a lad—lost his hold, dropped into the sea, and sank. Then Mr. March, though benumbed with cold, at the greatest possible risk, again swam to the vessel, dived near her keel, recovered the lad, and brought him safe to land. The remainder of the crew—which consisted of six men in all—got safely to land. Mr. March was for a time completely prostrated from the effects of his exertions and the intense cold, but by care and attention he was restored; a result scarcely to have been expected under the circumstances." Mr. March also holds the French Imperial Gold Medal de Sauvetage, and the Royal Humane Society's Medal of the 1st Class. Was promoted to be Consul for the Feejee and Tonga Islands, December 15, 1868; and passed an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners for that appointment, March 17, 1869. ## PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force, January 1872.)

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

IN order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns: that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

IN order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULS and NAVAL OFFICERS.

(In force, January 1872.)

Extract of Paragraph 26 of the General Instructions for Her Majesty's Consuls.

The Consular Service consists of the following Classes:

Agents and Consuls-General;
Consuls-General;
Consuls;
Vice-Consuls;
Consular-Agents.

Agents and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals, Commodores wearing Broad Pennants, or Major-Generals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Captains in charge of a Division, or Station, or Squadron, or in command of more than one rated ship, or Brigadier-Generals.

Consuls rank with, but after, Captains, R.N., or Colonels and Lieutenant-Colonels, but before Commanders, R.N., or Majors (Army).

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Lieutenants, R.N., and Masters Commanding, or Captains (Army), but before all other Lieutenants, R.N.

Consular-Agents rank with, but before, Mates, R.N., or Lieutenants (Army).

Consuls will take rank amongst their Colleagues at the Port of their Residence, in accordance with the Rules prescribed by the Congress of Vienna for Diplomatic Agents; viz.: seniority according to Official Title and priority of arrival.

PRECEDENCE between MEMBERS of the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(In force, January 1872.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation may be.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Secretary of Embassy or of Legation.

REGULATIONS FOR THE EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES BEFORE THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS FOR APPOINTMENTS IN AND UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

(In force, January 1872.)

  12. Ancient Greek.
  13. Italian or Spanish.
- The limit of age for Candidates is between 18 years complete and 24 years complete, except in the case of those who may not reside with relatives, or have an established and respectable home in the metropolis, or in its immediate neighbourhood; in this latter case, the minimum of age is 20 years complete.

(See also page 229.)

REGULATIONS for HER MAJESTY'S DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

(Revised and Confirmed by Earl Granville, February 1, 1871.)

1. Nomination, Qualification, and Examination of Candidates for Attachés.

THE junior members of the Diplomatic Service must pass two Examinations before the Civil Service Commissioners; and at the time of presenting themselves for the first they must have completed the 20th year of their age, and have not exceeded the 26th.

In the first examination, which candidates for Attachés must be prepared to undergo within 3 months from the date of their nomination, they must satisfy the examiners in regard to the following points:—

1. Orthography.
2. Handwriting.
3. General intelligence.
4. Précis writing.
5. That they are well grounded in Latin grammar, and are able to construe and parse a portion of some good classical Latin author, and to give the derivation of words.*
6. That they are acquainted with the first four rules of arithmetic and decimal fractions, as given in Colenso's Arithmetic, and with the first book of Euclid.
7. That they have a general knowledge of geography.
8. That they have a general knowledge of French grammar, and can translate correctly from French into English.
9. That they have a general knowledge of German grammar.
10. That they have a general knowledge of the constitutional history of England, to be acquired from Blackstone's "Commentaries" (Ker's Edition, 1862), and Hallam's "Constitutional History of England."
11. That they have a general knowledge of the political history of Europe, and of the United States of North America, from the Treaty of Paris, in 1815, to the Treaty of Villafranca, in 1860, comprising an acquaintance with the most important international transactions during that period.

In the second examination, which must be undergone in the interval between the grant of a commission as Third Secretary and that of a commission as Second Secretary, candidates will be exempted from re-examination in the 1st, 2nd, 5th, 6th, 7th, and 10th subjects in which they have passed in their previous examinations; but they must satisfy the examiners in regard to the following points:—

1. General intelligence, as evinced by the manner in which they acquire themselves, and specifically by the quickness they may show in seizing the points in papers read by them, or read over to them, once or twice.
2. Précis writing.
3. That they have a general knowledge of French grammar; that they can converse fluently in that language on ordinary topics; and can translate correctly from English into French, as well as from French into English.
4. That they have a general knowledge of German grammar, and can translate correctly from German into English; or if the candidates, between the first and second examinations, have not resided a reasonable time, 12 months for instance, in Germany, they may, if they desire it, substitute in their second examination, for a general knowledge of German grammar and for correct translation from German into English, the same qualifications in some other foreign language besides French.
5. That they have a general knowledge of the political history of Europe, and of the United States of North America, from the Treaty of Versailles, in 1783, to the Treaty of Villafranca, in 1860, comprising the most important international transactions during that period.
6. That they have a general knowledge of political economy, to be acquired from Adam Smith's "Wealth of Nations," and Mill's "Political Economy."
7. That they have a general knowledge of Maritime and International Law, to be acquired from Vattel, Wheaton's "Elements of International Law," and the first volume of Kent's "Commentaries."
8. They must satisfy the examiners, by submitting to them a general report on the commerce of the several countries in which they have resided, and on their political relations with other countries, that they are competent to draw up such a report: and they must be prepared to answer any questions put to them by the examiners within the limits of such report.

* Candidates who have passed the first public examination in Classics at one of the Universities in Great Britain or Ireland, or at the Royal Academy at Woolwich, or one of the public examinations for the Army or Navy, will be exempted from being examined in Latin; but candidates claiming this exemption must, on going up for examination, exhibit to the Civil Service Commissioners a certificate from the duly constituted authorities, examiners, or others, under whom they have been examined, that they have passed the first public examination in Classics, in whatever manner that examination may have been conducted, and to whatever point directed.

2. Period of Service of Attachés.

The service of Attachés will reckon from the date of the certificate first granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and will be considered as probationary for 4 years from that date, during which period the Attachés must have been employed for 6 months in the Foreign Office, and must also have actually resided at one of Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed in the Foreign Office, for such a time as in the aggregate will make up a further period of 3 years. The time, however, necessarily employed in journeys to and from Missions out of Europe, whether on appointment or on taking leave of absence, will be allowed to count towards the completion of the required term. If these conditions as to employment and residence have not been fulfilled at the expiration of 4 years from the date of the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners of their having passed the 1st examination, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled.

3. Commissions as 3rd Secretaries to be granted to Attachés on completion of their Probation.

Commissions as 3rd Secretaries under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual will be granted to Attachés, on the termination of the probationary period, and on the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the present Regulations.

4. A Salary of £150 a-year will be granted, contingently, to Attachés on completion of their Probation.

Together with a Salary at the rate of 150*l.* a-year, provided that the Minister under whom they have last served certifies that their general character and conduct, during the time they have so served, have been satisfactory; and that, as far as such Minister has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

2nd Secretaries will constitute an intermediate Class between 3rd Secretaries and Secretaries of Legation.

The Secretary of State will assign to each Embassy or Mission such a number of Secretaries of the 2nd and 3rd Classes as he may deem fit; it being always understood that Secretaries of these two classes may be named indiscriminately to either an Embassy or Mission, without reference to their previous employment in one or other of them. They are to be designated as 3rd or 2nd Secretary in the specific Embassy or Mission in which they may at the time be employed, but not as 3rd or 2nd Secretary of Embassy or Legation.

5. Number of 2nd Secretaries.

The number of 1st and 2nd Paid Attachés in the service on the 15th of September, 1862. Their salaries will be issued according to the scale established for the particular Embassy or Mission in which they may be actually serving, without reference to any previous amount of salary they may have received.

6. Rules as to Pensions of the 4th Class.

In virtue of Her Majesty's Commissions, the service of 2nd and 3rd Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 2 & 3 Wm. IV, cap. 116, from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they are eligible for a pension of the 4th Class only, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted; provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the 60th year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as 2nd or 3rd Secretary.

7. Provision for the Transfer of the Junior Members of the Diplomatic Service from one post to another; and Payment of their Expenses of Removal.

2nd or 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than 2 years, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave, in the same Embassy or Mission, unless for special public reasons. Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, 2nd and 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal by reason of promotion or otherwise on public grounds, receive such an allowance as shall be sufficient to cover the actual expense of their personal journey by land, or the actual amount paid for their personal passage by sea, either from England to their post, or from one foreign post to another; and in the case of Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, and of 2nd Secretaries, a similar allowance for one servant, if they have one; but no allowance will be made for the expense of the journey or subsistence of the families of any such Secretaries or Attachés. In the case of a mere change of post, not carrying with it increase of salary, an allowance of 1*l.* a day, as subsistence money during a journey by land will be given for each day actually employed in travelling by the direct road. In the event of a passage being afforded to Secretaries or Attachés on board of one of Her Majesty's ships of war, the allowance made will be in conformity with the Admiralty Regulations.

No allowance will be made to the Junior Members of the Diplomatic Service for journeys undertaken for their own convenience, in pursuance of leave of absence; but in all such cases the expense of the journeys from and on returning to their post will be exclusively at their own charge.

In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, Secretaries or Attachés, unless specially excused from doing so, will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and, in that case, they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road. It is to be distinctly understood that in future all the Members of the Diplomatic Service will be expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required; and that, except as regards Tehran and Peking, where no accommodation can be procured for married men, every Secretary or Attaché, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post at which the requirements of the public service demand his presence, and to which he may be appointed.

8. Interchange of Employment between 2nd and 3rd Secretaries and Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office.

The Secretary of State will, should he see occasion, for the advantage of the public service, allow 2nd and 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the three Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends, in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case such an allowance to the parties as he may consider just and reasonable. In the event of any Attaché being so employed in the Foreign Office, the period, over and above the 6 months which are obligatory as stated in section 2, during which he shall be actually employed in the Foreign Office, shall reckon towards the 3 years during which he is by these Regulations to reside at an Embassy or Mission abroad.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the class of Secretaries or Clerks to which either of them belongs.

If a Clerk in the Foreign Office should be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service, or should be temporarily employed with a Special, or with an Ordinary, Embassy or Mission, he will receive a Commission or an acting appointment, as the case may be, as Secretary of the 2nd or 3rd Class.

A First Class Junior Clerk who has acquired a standing in the Office which qualifies him to act as Assistant Clerk will receive an Acting Commission as 2nd Secretary; and a 2nd or 3rd Class Junior Clerk will receive an Acting Commission as 3rd Secretary.

9. Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

With a view to relieve Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the deduction to be made from their salaries will in future be limited, for a period not exceeding 60 days from the date of their departure from their posts, to the sum required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargés d'Affaires according to the present Regulations; on the expiration of which period the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of 60 days may either be one of 60 consecutive days, or of 60 days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January, and ending on the 31st of December.

10. Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary, by reason of war or other interruption of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the 11th section of the Act of 32 and 33 Vict., c. 43,* and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.

Foreign Office, February 1, 1871.

For CONSULAR APPOINTMENTS.

(Approved by the Earl of Clarendon, January 1, 1856.)

PERSONS selected for the Consular Service—whenever the circumstance of their being resident in England on their first appointment, or of their passing through England on their way to take up such first appointment, may admit of their being subjected to examination—will be expected to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

1st. That they have a correct knowledge of the English language so as to be able to express themselves clearly and correctly in writing.

2nd. That they can write and speak French correctly and fluently.

3rd. That they have a sufficient knowledge of the current language, as far as commerce is concerned, of the port at which they are appointed to reside, to enable them to communicate directly with the authorities and natives of the place; a knowledge of the Italian language being taken to meet this requirement as far as any place situated to the east of the Straits of Gibraltar is concerned; and a knowledge of the German language as regards ports within the Baltic, or countries having ports in the Baltic.

4th. A sufficient knowledge of British Mercantile and Commercial Law to enable them to deal with questions arising between British ship-owners, ship-masters, and seamen. As regards this head of examination, candidates must be prepared to be examined in "Smith's Compendium of Mercantile Law."

5th. A sufficient knowledge of arithmetic for the nature of the duties which Consuls are required to perform in drawing up Commercial Tables and Reports. As regards this head of examination, candidates must be prepared to be examined in "Bishop Colenso's Arithmetic."

Moreover, all persons on their first nomination to Consulships, and after having passed their examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, will be required, as far as practicable, to attend for at least three months in the Foreign Office, in order that they may become acquainted with the forms of business as carried on there.

Limit of Age for Candidates:—25 to 50, both years inclusive.

[See also page 229.]

For FOREIGN SERVICE MESSENGERS.

(Approved by the Earl of Malmesbury, May, 1859.)

THAT they are between the ages of 25 or 35, both periods complete.

That they are British subjects.

That they have such a knowledge of either French, German, or Italian, as will enable them to make themselves understood in regard to such matters as concern their duties on the road; those duties being, to convey the Despatches entrusted to them safely and expeditiously by whatever means they may have occasion to travel.

That they have such a knowledge of the first four rules of arithmetic as will enable them to make out their accounts in the simplest form.

That they are able to ride, and competent to perform journeys on horseback.

That they possess sound bodily health.

CONSULAR AGENTS will be allowed to wear the dress of Vice-Consuls.

CANCELLERIES attached to British Consulates in the Levant, will be permitted to wear the dress of Vice-Consuls, without the embroidery on the cuffs.

If a British Consular Officer should hold a separate appointment, which entitles him to wear another uniform, he is not allowed, during his employment in Her Majesty's Consular Service, to wear such other uniform, unless he has received special permission to that effect through Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

The Full Dress Uniform is to be worn at Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms and on similar State occasions abroad.

The Half Dress is to be worn at Her Majesty's Levees, State occasions abroad when Full Dress may not be required; and on paying official visits to, and receiving official visits from, the Commanders of Her Majesty's Ships of War.

The Undress may be worn on common occasions.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force. (1855.)

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Service before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previous to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV, on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1855.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy, for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the Decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine, or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander-in-Chief, or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

CLARENDON.

Foreign Office, January 1870.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. Applications for Foreign Office Passports must be made in writing; and inclosed in a cover addressed to "The Chief Clerk, Foreign Office, London," with the word "Passport" conspicuously written on the cover.

2. The charge on the issue of a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is 2s.; and if it is desired that the passport should be sent by post, that sum must be forwarded with the application for the passport by a Post Office order, made payable at the Post Office, Charing Cross, London, to the Chief Clerk of the Foreign Office, Francis B. Alston, Esq. Postage stamps will not be received in payment.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to such foreigners as have become naturalized either by Act of Parliament or by a Certificate of Naturalization granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department. When the party is a "Naturalized British subject," he will be so designated in his passport; and if his certificate of naturalization be dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, and previously to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will be marked as good for one year only; or should the certificate be dated subsequently to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will in that case be marked as good for six months only, except in cases where a licence for a longer period of residence abroad has been granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department: but this regulation will not preclude any person whom it affects from obtaining, at the Foreign Office, at any future time, on his producing his old passport, a fresh passport in exchange for it for a further limited period, without being required to pay a fresh charge. A Foreign Office passport granted to a British-born subject, or to a "Naturalized British subject" who has been naturalized by Act of Parliament, or whose certificate of naturalization is dated previously to the 24th of August, 1850, is not limited in point of time, but is available for any time, or for any number of journeys to the Continent. Aliens naturalized as British subjects under the Naturalization Act, 1870 (33 Vict. c. 14), will also receive passports unlimited in point of time, but subject to the qualification mentioned in the 7th Clause of the Act.

4. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the application of any Banking Firm established in London, or in any part of the United Kingdom; or upon the production of a Certificate of Identity signed by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom.

5. If the applicant for a passport be a Naturalized British subject, his certificate of naturalization, with his signature subscribed to the oath printed on the third page of it, must be forwarded to the Foreign Office with the certificate of identity granted on his behalf; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the passport to the person who may have granted the certificate of identity, in order that he may cause such Naturalized British subject to sign the passport in his presence. The agents at the outports are not authorized to grant passports to naturalized British subjects, and such persons, if resident in London or in the suburbs, should apply personally for their passports at the Foreign Office.

6. Passports are issued at the Foreign Office, between the hours of 11 and 4, on the day following that on which the application for the passport has been received at the Foreign Office; but the passports will be issued at the outports immediately on application, accompanied by the production of a certificate of identity, within such hours as may be fixed with regard to the convenience of persons desirous of embarking for the Continent.

7. A passport cannot be sent by the Foreign Office, or by an agent at an outport, to a person already abroad; such person, being a British-born subject, should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate. A passport cannot be issued abroad to a naturalized British subject, except for a direct journey to England, or in the case of a colonial naturalized subject for a journey back to the colony where he has been naturalized. Neither can a passport granted at the Foreign Office to a naturalized British subject for a limited period be renewed by Her Majesty's Diplomatic or Consular agents in foreign countries; but only at the Foreign Office.

8. The bearer of every passport granted by the Foreign Office should sign his passport as soon as he receives it: without such signature either the visa may be refused, or the validity of the passport questioned abroad. Travellers about to proceed to France, Germany, Russia, Turkey, and Portugal, can have their passports viséd at the under-mentioned places respectively: for France, at the French Consulate, 38, Finsbury Circus; for Germany, at the Consulate, 4, London-street, City; for Russia, at the Russian Consulate, 32, Great Winchester-street; for Turkey, at the Turkish Embassy, 1, Bryanston-square; and for Portugal, at the Portuguese Consulate, 5, Jeffrey's-square. Travellers about to proceed to Austria, Belgium, Denmark, The Netherlands, Italy, Sweden and Norway, need not obtain the visa of the Diplomatic or Consular Agents of those countries respectively resident in the United Kingdom.

N.B.—Travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Russian Empire at any time in the course of their travels, are particularly and earnestly advised not to quit England without having had their passports viséd at the Russian Consulate in London.

Model Form of Certificate of Identity to be written out in full, signed and sealed by the person giving it; and also by the person in whose behalf it is granted.

(Date of Place and Day of the Month.)

The Undersigned, Mayor of (Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary as the case may be), residing at _____ hereby certifies that A. B. (Christian and surname to be written at length), whose signature is written at foot, is a British subject, and requires a passport to enable him to proceed to _____ (a naturalized British subject, and requires a passport to enable him to travel on the Continent) (accompanied, as the case may be, by his wife and children, with their tutor, named _____

An Act to provide for the Payment of DIPLOMATIC SALARIES, ALLOWANCES, AND PENSIONS.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43.—2 August, 1869.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the payment of the salaries, allowances, and pensions of persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service out of moneys provided by Parliament instead of out of the Consolidated Fund, and otherwise to amend the law respecting the same:

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, 1869."

Commencement of Act.

2. This Act shall come into operation as on and from the 1st day of April, 1869, which day is in this Act referred to as "the commencement of this Act."

Interpretation of Terms.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—The term "Treasury" means the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:

The term "Secretary of State" means that one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State who is entrusted with the Seals of the Department for Foreign Affairs, or performs the duties of that Department.

Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, and part of Sections 12 and 13 of 2 & 3 Wm. IV. cap. 116, and 22 & 23 Vict., cap. 5, repealed.

4. Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the Act of the session of the 2nd and 3rd Years of William IV, chapter 116, "to provide for the salaries of certain high and judicial officers, and payments hitherto made out of the Civil List revenues," and so much of sections 12 and 13 of the same Act as relates to diplomatic salaries, allowances, and pensions, and the whole of the Act of the session of the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 5, "to remove doubts as to the qualification of persons holding diplomatic pensions to sit in Parliament," are hereby repealed, as from the commencement of this Act.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect any pensions now payable under the said Act; and those pensions shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, and the accounts thereof shall be laid before Parliament in the same manner as if this Act had not passed.

Salaries, Pensions, &c., Payable out of Annual Votes.

5. After the commencement of this Act all salaries, allowances, and pensions (other than pensions granted before the commencement of this Act) payable to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, and shall be paid on such days and in such manner as the Treasury may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from time to time appoint.

Amounts of Diplomatic Pensions.

6. After the commencement of this Act the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, may grant pensions during life to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, not exceeding the salary which the pensioner may be receiving at the time that his active employment ceases, and not exceeding the following amounts; namely:

- (1.) 1,700*l.* per annum for a 1st class pension.
- (2.) 1,300*l.* per annum for a 2nd class pension.
- (3.) 900*l.* per annum for a 3rd class pension.
- (4.) 700*l.* per annum for a 4th class pension.

Qualifications for Pension.

7. With respect to the qualifications for pensions under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

- (1.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of any class, until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, and unless he has actually served in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 10 years:
- (2.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 1st class unless he has been an Ambassador, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 3 years:
- (3.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 2nd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the first class, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:
- (4.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 3rd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the second class, or a Minister Plenipotentiary, or a Minister Resident, or a Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in some foreign State or States, where no other Diplomatic Representative is usually appointed to reside on behalf of Her Majesty, or an Agent and Consul-General in some foreign State or States where his duties have been generally of a political character, and in one or more of those capacities has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:
- (5.) A period of residence in any capacity which, if continued, would be a qualification for any class of pension may count as part of the qualification for a lower class of pension.

Pension to Invalided Secretaries.

8. Where a person holding a commission as Second or Third Secretary in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, and having served in such capacities, or one of them, for a period not less than five years, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him an allowance during his life, not exceeding for each year of his service in the said capacities, or one of them (if he has only served in one), one-thirtieth part of the amount of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Allowance in case of Bodily Injury.

9. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned without his own default in the discharge of his duty, is constrained to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him a gratuity not exceeding the amount of three months' salary for every two years of service, or a pension not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Temporary Pension on Rupture of Diplomatic Relations.

10. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, who is serving in any foreign State in any capacity, and is, by reason of war or any interruption of diplomatic relations, withdrawn from active service before he has completed the term of service and period of residence which, under the provisions of this Act, would entitle him to a pension for having served in such capacity, the Treasury, at the request of the Secretary of State, may grant to him a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and character of his services.

Every such allowance shall cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of diplomatic relations.

Forfeiture of Pension on Refusal to Serve again.

11. If any person who is in receipt of a pension or temporary allowance under this Act, and has not attained the age of sixty years, and is not incapacitated by infirmity of mind or body (proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, by a medical certificate or otherwise), refuses, when required so to do by the Secretary of State, to proceed to any Mission which is of the same rank as that in respect of which his pension was granted, or to some Mission of higher rank, he shall forfeit his right to the pension and allowance.

Suspension of Payment on Holding other Offices.

12. Where a person having any pension or allowance under this Act is appointed to any office of profit under the Crown, or to any office the salary of which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, whether such office is in the United Kingdom or not, his pension and allowance, so long as he continues to hold such office, shall, if the emoluments of such office are equal to or larger than the pension or allowance, be suspended, and if the emoluments of such office are less than the pension or allowance, be diminished by the amount of such emoluments.

13. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to determine the foreign States the Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at which are thereafter to be deemed on First and Second Class Missions respectively for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Such determination shall be signified in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the signing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session.

The arrangement existing at the commencement of this Act as to such First and Second Class Missions shall, until and except so far as altered under the provisions of this section, continue in force for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Employment beyond Limits of State.

14. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service is actually employed beyond the limits of the foreign State in which, under the terms of his credentials or commission he should properly reside, and is so employed on a special diplomatic mission or service, whether in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or (being a Second or Third Secretary) is so employed for the advantage of the public service in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, he shall, for the purposes of a pension under this Act, be deemed, during the time that he is so actually employed, to have been actually residing in such foreign State.

Pension on Transfer from Civil (or Consular) to Diplomatic Service, and vice versa.

15. Where a person in the Consular Service or in any other branch of the Civil Service of Her Majesty is appointed to some employment in the Diplomatic Service, or where a person in the Diplomatic Service is appointed to some employment in the Civil Service of the State in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, and such person may suffer prejudice in regard to his retiring allowance by reason of his not continuing in his former service, the Treasury may award to him, on his retirement from active service, such pension or superannuation allowance under this Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, or one of them, as in their opinion will prevent his suffering such prejudice and is just, having regard to his services; but save as aforesaid a person receiving a pension under this Act shall not be entitled to any superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859. (22 & 23 Vict., cap. 26.)

Pension, &c., to be Free from Taxes.

16. Every pension, allowance, and gratuity under this Act shall be paid to the person entitled to the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties at present existing, except the tax upon income.

Pensioner may Sit in House of Commons.

17. A pension under this Act shall not disqualify the holder for being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

An Act to remove doubts as to the Qualification of

PERSONS HOLDING CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS, OR RECEIVING SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES, TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 15.—24 June, 1869.

WHEREAS the Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., Chapter 24, and of the 22nd year of Her Majesty, Chapter 26, regulate the conditions on which pensions, compensations, and allowances shall be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in Her Majesty's service:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether such pensions, compensations, or allowances, being those of reward and recompense for civil services authorized by Parliament, come within the provisions of the Act of the 6th year of Queen Anne, Chapter 7, which renders any person holding a pension from the Crown during pleasure incapable of being elected or of sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons:

Be it therefore enacted; and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:

1. That pensions, compensations, or allowances granted for civil services according to the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. and the 22nd year of Her Majesty, or any other Act or Acts whatever, shall not disqualify the holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

2. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and 22nd Victoria, Chapter 26, or of the Act of the 20th and 21st years of Her Majesty, Chapter 37.

CIVIL SERVICE AND CONSULAR PENSIONS.

- (1.) An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service.

4 & 5 Will. IV., c. 24.—25 July, 1834.*

Pensions to the First Lord of the Treasury, Secretaries of State, Chancellor of the Exchequer, First Lord of the Admiralty, President of the India Board, President of the Board of Trade.

Whereas by an Act passed in the 57th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George III [cap. 65], to enable His Majesty to recompense the services of persons holding or who have held certain high and efficient civil offices, His Majesty is empowered to grant pensions, as therein provided, to persons who shall have served His Majesty, his heirs or successors, in the offices therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act passed in the 6th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George IV, for amending the said recited Act, it is enacted, that the several other offices therein particularly described shall be deemed to be comprised in the several classes of offices in the said recited Act respectively specified: And whereas it is expedient that the amount of the pensions by the said two Acts authorized to be granted should as to future pensions be reduced, and the conditions under which the same shall be granted be altered and regulated: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act no pension to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in any one or more of the offices of First Lord of the Treasury, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or Chancellor of the Exchequer, or First Lord of the Admiralty, or President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, or President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, shall exceed the sum of 2,000*l.* per annum; nor shall any such pension be granted to any person unless he shall have held one or more of the said offices for a period of not less than 2 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 4 such pensions hereafter to be granted be existing or in force at the same time.

Chief Secretary of Ireland, Secretary at War.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no pension to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in either or both of the offices of Chief Secretary for Ireland or Secretary at War shall exceed the sum of 1,400*l.* per annum; nor shall any such pension be granted to any person unless he shall have held one or both of the said offices for a period of not less than 5 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 2 such last-mentioned pensions be existing or in force at the same time.

Joint Secretaries of the Treasury, First Secretary of Admiralty, Vice-President of Board of Trade.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no pension to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in one or more of the offices of one of the Joint Secretaries of the Treasury, or First Secretary of the Admiralty, or Vice-President of the Committee of Commissioners appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, shall exceed the sum of 1,200*l.* per annum; nor shall any such pension be granted to any person unless he shall have held one or more of the said offices for a period of not less than 5 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 4 such last-mentioned pensions be existing or in force at the same time.

Under Secretaries of State, Clerk of the Ordnance, Second Secretary of Admiralty, Secretaries of India Board.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the pension, not exceeding 1,000*l.*, authorized by the said recited Act to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in any one or more of the offices of one of the Under Secretaries of State, or Clerk of the Ordnance, or Second Secretary of the Admiralty, or one of the Secretaries of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, shall not be granted to any such person unless he shall have held one or more of the said offices for a period of not less than 10 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 6 such last-mentioned pensions be existing or in force at the same time.

Regulation as to Period of Service.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case it shall happen that any person shall have served His Majesty, his heirs, or successors, in more than one class of offices herein-before specified, in respect whereof any pension less than 2,000*l.* may be granted, it shall be lawful to grant, under the Regulations aforesaid, to such person, any pension annexed to the highest class of office in which such person may have been employed, whenever the whole period of the service of such person in the several offices in which he shall have been employed shall amount to 10 years, although the period of the service of such person in such highest class shall not have extended to the period of 5 years; provided always, that such person shall have served in such highest class for the period of not less than 3 years; and in cases in which the service of any such person in any class of those offices shall not be sufficient to entitle him to the pension of that class, it shall be lawful to grant him a pension not exceeding 1,000*l.*, provided the period of his aggregate services in that and any inferior class or classes or department of the public service shall amount to 10 years: Provided also, that there shall not be more than the aforesaid number of pensions to that amount existing at the same time.

Declaration to be made by Persons claiming Pensions.

VI. And whereas the principle of the Regulations for granting allowances of this nature is and ought to be founded on a consideration, not only of the services performed by the individual to the State, but of the inadequacy of his private fortune to maintain his station in life: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this said Act whenever any person shall seek to obtain any one of the pensions before mentioned his application for that purpose shall be made in writing to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to which he shall subscribe his name, and which shall contain, not only a statement of the services performed by him, and the grounds on which such pension is claimed, but a specific declaration that the amount of his income from other sources is so limited as to bring him within the intent and meaning of this Act and the principle hereinabove declared, and without such declaration no pension as herein-before provided or authorized shall be granted.

Regulations with respect to Pensions contained in recited Acts to apply to Pensions under this Act.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the several regulations with respect to the granting of any of the before-mentioned pensions, and to the receipt thereof by the persons to whom such grants may be made, which are contained in the said recited Act of the 57th years of King George III and the 6th year of King

* The clauses of the Act of 1834 which are not repealed, and the Act of 1859, are declared by the Act of 19th April, 1859, § xviii, to be construed as one Act.

George IV, shall continue in full force and effect, and be applicable to pensions to be granted under the authority of this Act, except so far as any such regulations are altered or repealed by the enactments contained in this Act.

[Clause VIII repeals Clauses of previous Acts.]

Superannuation Allowance to Persons who entered the Service before 5th August, 1829.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the

For 15 years and upwards, and under 20 years, not exceeding 5-12ths of such salary and emoluments:

" 20	"	"	25	"	"	6-12ths	"
" 25	"	"	30	"	"	7-12ths	"
" 30	"	"	35	"	"	8-12ths	"
" 35	"	"	40	"	"	9-12ths	"
" 40	"	"	45	"	"	10-12ths	"
" 45	"	"	50	"	"	11-12ths	"

And for 50 years or upwards, any annual allowance not exceeding the net amount of the salary and emoluments of his office.

Clauses X and XI repealed by section 1 of Act 22 Vict., c. 26, 19th April, 1859.]

Superannuations not to be granted on advanced Amount of Salary received for less than Three years.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the superannuation allowance to be granted to any officer or person after the passing of this Act, shall not be computed upon the amount of the salary enjoyed by him at the time of his retirement, unless he shall have been in the receipt of the same, or in the class from which he retires, for a period of at least three years immediately before the granting of such superannuation allowance; and in case he shall not have enjoyed his then existing salary or have been in such class for that period, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average amount of salary received by such person for three years next preceding the commencement of such allowance.

[Clauses XIII to XV repealed by section I of Act 22 Vict., c. 26.]

Compensation to Military and Naval Officers for Civil Services not to exceed Two-thirds of Salary, except in special Cases.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no compensation hereafter to be made or superannuation allowance to be granted in respect of Civil Services to any person entitled to half-pay in the army, ordnance, navy, or marines, who shall have been appointed to the Civil Service subsequently to the 4th day of August, 1829, shall in any case, except as in this Act is specially provided, exceed in the whole (computing his half-pay in such compensation or allowance) the amount of two-thirds of the salary and emoluments of the office relinquished by him: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to entitle any Superintendent of a dockyard or other establishment in the Civil Department of the navy, who shall have held any civil appointment prior to the 5th day of August, 1829, to any superannuation allowance under this Act beyond the amount stipulated by the terms on which he shall have accepted the office of Superintendent, or the amount established by any Order of His Majesty in Council concerning Superintendents.

[Clause XVII repealed by section 1 of Act 22 Vict., c. 26.]

No Compensation to be charged upon the Funds of the Department nor without Concurrence of His Majesty in Council or of the Treasury.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no compensation for any office abolished, nor any special allowance or remuneration for good services to any person holding or having held any civil office in any public department, shall be charged upon the incidents or any other fund of any such department; and that no such compensation, nor any allowance or compensation in the nature of superannuation or retired allowance or reward to any such person in respect of his having held any public passing of this Act the superannuation allowances to be granted to such officers and clerks who shall have entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829 (except only as hereinafter is authorized), shall not exceed the following proportions with reference to the amount of their salaries and the periods of their services respectively; videlicet:—

To an officer, clerk, or person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 15 years, any annual allowance not exceeding in amount 4-12ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office:

office or employment, or having been engaged in any public service, shall be granted, allowed, or paid, other than under the authority of an Order of His Majesty in Council, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or any 3 or more of them.

[Clause XIX repealed by section 1 of Act 22 Vict., c. 26.]

No Superannuation or Compensation to be enjoyed with Salary for efficient Services.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any person enjoying any superannuation allowance, in consequence of retiring from office on account of age, infirmity, or any other cause, or enjoying any compensation for past services upon the abolition or reduction of office, shall be appointed to fill any office in any public department, every such allowance or compensation shall cease to be paid for any period subsequent to such appointment if the annual amount of the profits of the office to which he shall be appointed shall be equal to those of the office formerly held by him, and in case they shall not be equal to those of his former office then no more of such superannuation allowance or compensation shall be paid to him than what with the salary of his new appointment shall be equal to that of his former office.

Not to extend to Half-pay, &c.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained with respect to compensation, superannuation, or allowance for Civil Services shall extend or be construed to extend to any military or naval half-pay, or allowance in lieu of half-pay, or to any military or naval allowance or pensions granted or to be granted under the regulations of any Order of His Majesty in Council, in any of the respective Departments of the Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Secretary at War, and the Master General of the Ordnance, except as hereinafter is provided with respect to the same.

Account of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances to be annually laid before Parliament.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That between the 1st day of February and the 25th day of March in every year, or if Parliament shall not be sitting during any part of that period, then within 20 days after the next meeting of Parliament, there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament an account of every increase and diminution which shall have taken place within the preceding year, ending on the 31st day of December, in the number of persons employed in all public offices or departments under the Crown, and in the salaries, emoluments, allowances, and expenses which shall have taken place or been paid, granted, received, or incurred for and in respect of all officers and persons belonging to or employed in all such public offices or departments, specifying the amount and nature thereof, and distinguishing every increase and diminution in the amount of all allowances or compensations granted as retired allowances or superannuations to any person having held any office, place, or employment in any such public office or department, and also the time and length of service of every such person, and the amount of the salary and emoluments received by such person immediately preceding his superannuation or retirement, and the nature of his services, and the grounds upon which such increase or diminution in the establishment of every such public office or department, or of any salary, emolument, allowance, compensation, or superannuation, shall have been granted or made; and also specifying the name of every person receiving such allowance or compensation who may have died in the course of the year, together with the amount of the annual allowance payable to such person.

Civil Allowances, &c., to be laid before Parliament.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That accounts of all compensations for offices abolished, and of all allowances in the nature of superannuation or retired allowances to all other persons in respect of their having held any public office or employment under the Crown, shall annually, at the period lastly provided, be laid before the Commons House of Parliament.

[Clause XXIV repealed by section 1 of Act 22 Vict., c. 26.]

Half-pay and Military and Naval Pensions to be laid before Parliament in separate Estimates.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all half-pay and allowances in lieu of half-pay in the several departments of the army, ordnance, navy, and marines, and all military and naval allowances or pensions granted or which shall be granted in any of such departments under the authority of any Order in Council, shall be annually laid before the Commons House of Parliament, in separate estimates, at the same time with the ordinary estimates of those respective departments, and shall be kept distinct from all pensions, compensations, superannuation and retired allowances in any of the civil offices of those departments respectively.

Compensations not provided for to be charged on Funds of Departments.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the compensations, superannuations, and allowances authorized as well by this as any former Act or Acts shall, when not specially provided for by Parliament, be charged upon and paid and payable by the respective departments or offices in which the persons receiving such allowances shall have served.

[Clause XXVII repealed by Act 20 and 21 Vict., c. 37, 17 August, 1857.]

Average of Emoluments to be made by Heads of Departments.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the person or persons at the head of any department in which any fees or other sources of profit may form part of the emoluments of any office in such department, to fix, with the approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or for the Commissioners of the Admiralty if the office shall be in that department, an average sum upon which the compensation or superannuation allowance shall be granted, as well as the sum to be annually abated, as hereinbefore provided, from such person's salary, in respect of such emoluments, which sum so to be fixed shall not exceed the average amount of such emoluments for the 3 last preceding years.

Vice-Treasurer of Ireland to transmit Accounts of his Execution of the Act.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Vice-Treasurer of Ireland, shall at all times when required so to do by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, transmit to the said Commissioners accounts of the execution of this Act, and of all matters and things relating thereto, in his execution of the powers thereof, in such manner and form, and containing such particulars, as he shall in that behalf be from time to time directed.

Act not to give an absolute Right to Allowances, or to prevent Dismissal of Persons for Misconduct.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any person an absolute right to compensation for past services, or to any superannuation or retiring allowance under this Act, or to deprive the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the heads or principal officers of the respective departments, of their power and authority to dismiss any person from the public service without compensation.

Act may be amended this Session.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present session of Parliament.

(2.) An Act to amend the Laws concerning Superannuations and other Allowances to Persons having held Civil Offices in the Public Service.
22 Vict., c. 26.—19 April, 1859.

Ordinary Rate of Superannuation Allowance.

I. (Repeals sections X, XI, XIII, XIV, XV, XVII, XIX, XXIV of Act 4 & 5 Will. IV., c. 24.)

II. Subject to the exceptions and provisions hereinafter contained, the superannuation allowance to be granted after the commencement of this Act to persons who shall have served in an established capacity in the permanent Civil Service of the State, whether their remuneration be computed by day pay, weekly wages, or annual salary, and for whom provision shall not otherwise have been made by Act of Parliament, or who may not be specially excepted by the authority of Parliament, shall be as follows; (that is to say.)

To any person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 11 years, an annual allowance 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

For 11 years, and under 12 years, an annual allowance of 11-60ths of such salary and emoluments.

And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of 1-60th in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of 40 years, when the annual allowance of 40-60ths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond 40 years.

Provided always, that if any question should arise in any department of the public service, as to the claim of any person or class of persons for superannuation under this clause, it shall be referred to the Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision shall be final.

Application of Act to Persons already in the Civil Service, but without Prejudice to existing Rights.

III. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the grant, to the officers and clerks who entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829, of such superannuation allowances as might hereafter have been granted to them under section 9 of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. or shall prevent, restrict, or diminish, any other superannuation allowance, pension, gratuity, or compensation which, if this Act had not been passed, might hereafter have been granted to any person who shall have entered the public service before the passing of this Act, but, except as aforesaid, the provisions hereinafter contained shall apply as well to persons who have already entered the public service, whether before or after the said 5th day of August, 1829, as to those who may hereafter enter the public service.

Provision for computing Amount of Superannuation to Persons holding professional and other special Offices.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury from time to time, by any order or warrant, to declare that for the due and efficient discharge of the duties of any office or class of offices to be specified in such order or warrant, professional or other peculiar qualifications, not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, are required, and that it is for the interest of the public that persons should be appointed thereto at an age exceeding that at which public service ordinarily begins; and by the same or any other order or warrant to direct that when any person now holding or who may hereafter be appointed to such office, or any of such class of offices, shall retire from the public service, a number of years not exceeding 20, to be specified in the said order or warrant, shall, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance which may be granted to him under the foregoing section of this Act, be added to the number of years during which he may have actually served, and also to direct that in respect of such office or class of offices, the period of service required to entitle the holders to superannuation may be a period less than 10 years, to be specified in the order or warrant; and also to direct that, in respect of such office or class of offices, the holder may be entitled to superannuation, though he may not hold his appointment directly from the Crown, and may not have entered the service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners: Provided always, that every order or warrant made under this enactment shall be laid before Parliament.

Allowances in cases of bodily Injury.

V. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, but not having completed the period which would have entitled him to a superannuation allowance, is compelled to quit the public service by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned, without his own default, in the discharge of his public duty, a gratuity not exceeding 3 months pay for every 2 years of service, or a superannuation allowance not exceeding 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of this office.

Power to Treasury to grant Gratuities in case of short Service.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special annual allowance by way of compensation, as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office; and if the compensation shall exceed the amount to which such person would have been entitled under the scale of superannuation provided by this Act if 10 years were added to the number of years which he may have actually served, such allowance shall be granted by special minute, stating the special grounds for granting such allowance, which minute shall be laid before Parliament, and no such allowance shall exceed 2-3rds of the salary and emoluments of the office.

Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

VIII. It shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

IX. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmity of Persons under Sixty.

X. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Persons superannuated under Sixty may be required to serve again.

XI. Every person to whom a superannuation or compensation allowance shall have been granted before he shall have attained the age of 60 years shall, until he has attained that age, be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he shall before have served, any public office or situation under the Crown for which his previous public services may render him eligible; and if he shall decline, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or shall decline or neglect to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the compensation or superannuation allowance which had been granted to him.

(Civil Service, Consular, and Slave Trade.)Persons to retain Right to Superannuation on Transfer to other Employment under the Crown.

XII. And whereas it shall be for the advantage of the public service that officers holding employments entitling them to superannuation allowances under this or other Acts shall be eligible for other public employments at home and abroad, without forfeiting their claims to such allowances:

Every officer already or hereafter to be transferred from employment entitling him to superannuation allowance to public employment under the Crown not so entitling him shall be entitled, on his ultimate retirement from the public service, to the same allowance as if he had continued to hold the vacated appointment and at the same rate of salary as when the same was vacated, subject nevertheless to the conditions which would in that case have been applicable with respect to the grant of such allowance; provided that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, in the case of officers transferred to governorships and lieutenant-governorships of colonies, and other high offices abroad, conferred for a limited period, to grant such superannuation allowance to such officers on the expiration of such term of service without a renewal of public employment; but any officer to whom such grant is made while under the age of 60 years shall be subject to the same liability to be called upon to fill office under the Crown, as herein provided concerning other persons under that age to whom like allowances are granted.

XIII. Orders, &c., within what time to be laid before Parliament.

XIV. Section 6 of 59 George III, c. 65, only to appointment to officers having had seats in Parliament.

Acts in Schedule to be construed as referring to this Act.

XV. The several sections mentioned in the schedule hereto of the several Acts of Parliament, also therein mentioned, shall be construed as if this Act, instead of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of King William IV, had been referred to in the said sections; and such other enactments as refer to the scale of superannuation allowance established by the provisions hereby repealed of the said Act of King William IV, shall be construed as if the scale established by this Act had been referred to.

Allowances to be paid free from Taxes.

XVI. All superannuations, compensations, gratuities, and other allowances granted or hereafter under this Act to be granted, shall be paid to persons entitled to receive the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties whatever at present existing, except the tax upon property or income.

Who to be deemed Civil Servants.

XVII. For the purposes of this Act, no person hereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners; nor shall any person, already appointed to any office, be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid, unless such person belong to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, or as having been admitted into the Civil Service with such certificate as aforesaid, have become entitled to such allowance; and no person shall be entitled to any superannuation allowance under this Act, unless his salary or remuneration has been provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of monies voted by Parliament.

4 & 5 Will. IV, c. 24, and this Act to be construed together.

XVIII. So much of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, chapter 24,* as is now in force and not hereby repealed, and this Act, shall be construed together as one Act.

Short Title.

XIX. It shall be sufficient, in citing this Act, to use the expression "The Superannuation Act, 1859."

PENSIONS TO SLAVE TRADE COMMISSIONERS.

[Extracted from Parliamentary Paper, No. 94, Session I, 1859.]

Treasury Minute, November 22, 1842.

Scale of Pensions, &c., for Mixed Commission Courts for Suppression of the Slave Trade.

READ letter from the Earl of Aberdeen, dated 15th instant, referring to the treaty concluded, on the 3rd July last between Great Britain and Portugal for the suppression of the slave trade, and calling their Lordships' attention to the necessity of providing for the expenditure to be incurred for the Commissions under Article 6 of that treaty for the trial of vessels charged with being concerned in the slave trade. The Commissions to be established are 4 in number: 2 of these in possessions belonging to Her Majesty, and 2 within the territories of Her most faithful Majesty.

The British possessions named for these Commissions are the Cape of Good Hope and Jamaica; the Portuguese possessions are Boa Vista, one of the Cape Verd Islands, and Loanda, in the province of Angola, on the western coast of Africa. The appointments to be made in these Commissions, on the part of Her Majesty, are as follows: a Commissioner, an arbitrator, and a registrar to reside at the Cape of Good Hope, and similar officers at Jamaica; a Commissioner and an arbitrator at Boa Vista, and similar officers at Loanda.

Lord Aberdeen submits that the salary to be given to the head Commissioner in each of those courts should be £1,200 a-year; that the salary to the arbitrator should be £800 a-year; and that the salary of the registrar should be £500 a-year. In respect to the pensions which may eventually be granted to the persons holding these situations, his Lordship submits that it will be advisable to adopt a modification of the system according to which pensions are now granted for services under Slave Trade Commissions. He proposes that a graduated scale should be adopted, under which a less sum should be given than has hitherto been granted for the shortest term required; but the sum allotted should eventually be increased in cases in which a more lengthened term of service has been completed, viz., that an officer, after 12 years' service actually completed at his post, may, on then retiring with the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, be recommended for a pension not exceeding  $\frac{2}{3}$ ths of his salary; and that in case of his serving longer, the pension for which he may be recommended may be increased at the rate of  $\frac{1}{3}$ ths of his salary for such further 6 years' actual service at his post. Lord Aberdeen further proposes to follow the practice hitherto observed of giving to such functionary a free passage to his post; and that the sum allotted to each for his equipment should be equal in amount to 3 months' salary.

Write to Mr. Addington, that my Lords approve of the scale of salaries proposed by Lord Aberdeen for the officers to be appointed by Her Majesty in the Mixed Commissions to be established under the treaty between Great Britain and Portugal at the Cape of Good Hope, Jamaica, Boa Vista, and Loanda, and also of the proposed arrangements with regard to the retired allowances to be hereafter granted to those officers.

Their Lordships also concur with Lord Aberdeen, that the same arrangements with regard to pensions should be carried out in respect to appointments hereafter to be made at the Havana, Rio de Janeiro, and Surinam.

Their Lordships would further suggest, for Lord Aberdeen's consideration, whether the salaries of the officers at these last-mentioned stations may not be reduced, as vacancies occur, to the scale which has been resolved upon for the officers to be appointed to the new Mixed Commissions. Lord Aberdeen will no doubt concur in opinion with their Lordships, that the large increase which is about to take place in the expense of this department of the public service renders it particularly important that the entire establishment should be regulated in future with every practical attention to economy.

With regard to Sierra Leone, their Lordships admit that the unhealthiness of the climate renders it proper that the minimum period of service entitling officers to pensions at that place should be fixed lower than at other stations; but if this period were to be reduced to six years, with an increase at the rate of two-twelfths of the salary for each further three years' actual service on the spot, their Lordships are of opinion that the salaries at present allotted to the officers at that station ought to undergo a very considerable reduction.

Their Lordships see no objection to the course proposed with regard to the passages and outfit of the officers to be now appointed.

PENSIONS TO CHAPLAINS.

Under the Act 22 Vict., c. 26 (Page 237) Pensions are granted to Chaplains attached to British Legations and Consulates abroad, calculated on the amount of the annual salary or contribution made by Her Majesty's Government in each case. The contributions made by British residents towards the support of the Chaplain are not reckoned in the calculation.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE PAY, &c., OF ARTILLERY AND ENGINEER OFFICERS DURING THEIR EMPLOYMENT IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Treasury Minute dated October 19, 1855. (Parliamentary Paper, No. 58, Session 1863.)—(Ext.)

1st. That when the services of an officer of Royal Artillery or Engineers may be required in a Civil Department, and absence from his regular duties can be allowed without inconvenience to the military service, the Commander-in-chief should grant him leave of absence for a period not exceeding six months; that in such case the officer should remain in regard to rank, pay, and progressive promotion, in the same position as he would have been if granted leave of absence under ordinary circumstances on account of health or private affairs. That the Civil Department employing such officer should make such addition to his military pay as will afford him adequate remuneration, when added to his pay, for the duty he may have to perform.

2nd. In every case and without exception, if the civil duty and employment lasts more than six months, and the officer prefer continuing in such employment instead of going back to his military duty, he should be made supernumerary in his corps; that he should nevertheless retain his rank, with the progressive promotion in his corps to which his position may entitle him: but that he should draw no military pay whatever, the whole of his remuneration being provided by the Civil Department in which he may be employed; that if at the expiration of ten years, or earlier in case his civil employment should cease, he should return to his corps, he should in such case be considered as supernumerary, and fall into the first vacancy; but if after the expiration of ten years he should prefer remaining in his civil employment, he should then be placed on the retired list of the corps; that on such officer first becoming supernumerary, his place in his corps should be filled up by an effective officer, so as to keep the corps always complete and efficient.

Regulations relative to Sec. II. of Colonial Regulations.

Art. 1. Whenever any Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary shall arrive at, or depart from any place in Her Majesty's dominions where there are forts or batteries from which salutes are usually fired, he shall be saluted with the number of guns specified against his rank in the scale § II.; and if an Ambassador shall embark on board of one of Her Majesty's ships in an official capacity, he shall also be saluted by such ship, according to the said scale, on his going on board, (and should he proceed to sea in her) also on his finally leaving her, and the same may be observed in a foreign port or colony.

Art. 2. Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary, and Envoys, Ministers, and others accredited to Sovereigns (with the exception of such Ministers as are accredited in the specific character of "Ministers Resident," shall be entitled to be saluted with the number of guns specified against their rank in the scale § II.; but they shall be entitled only to the compliment when within the precincts of the nation to which they are accredited; and consequently when they proceed in a ship of war, they are only to be saluted by such ship, on their quitting her, after her arrival at their destination; and whenever they shall visit in their official capacity any of Her Majesty's ships within the precincts of the territories to which they are accredited, they are to be saluted by such ships with the number of guns specified against their rank in the scale; but if they visit several of Her Majesty's ships at the same port on the same day they shall be saluted only by one of them; and although their visit to any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels may be repeated, they shall be saluted by the same ship in the same port only once in 12 months; but when they shall embark on the final termination of their mission, they shall be entitled to the same number of guns from any of Her Majesty's ships which may be ordered to receive them.

The foregoing regulations are to be applicable also to the other diplomatic authorities of lower rank than that of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary differing only in the number of guns with which they are to be saluted, as stated against their ranks in the scale.

Art. 3. It is to be understood that salutes, in conformity to the foregoing regulations, shall be fired in compliment (from either forts or ships) to those foreign diplomatic authorities only whose nations pay the same compliments to Her Majesty's diplomatic ministers in their territories.

Art. 4. Her Majesty's Consuls-General, or Consuls, or the Members of a British Factory, shall be saluted with the number of guns mentioned against their rank in scale § II., on their going on board, or on their leaving any one of Her Majesty's ships, but this to be done only in the foreign ports to which they respectively belong, and only once in 12 months from the same ship or vessel, and to the same person.

PROVISION FOR SUPPORT OF CHURCHES AND CHAPELS, &amp;c.,

In Foreign Ports and Places where a Chaplain is appointed and maintained by Subscription.

Extract from Act 6 Geo. IV., Cap. 87.—July 5, 1825.

Provisions for Support of Churches and Chapels, &c., in Foreign Ports and Places where a Chaplain is appointed and maintained by Subscription; Consuls authorized to advance for such Purpose a sum equal to the Amount subscribed.

X. And whereas Churches and Chapels for the Performance of Divine Service, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, have been erected, and proper Grounds have been appropriated and set apart for the Interment of the dead, in divers Foreign Ports and Places, and Chaplains have been appointed for the Performance of Divine Service in the said Churches and Chapels, and are now resident in such Foreign Ports and Places; and it is expedient to afford Encouragement for the Support of the Churches and Chapels so erected as aforesaid, and to promote the Erection of other Churches and Chapels in Foreign Ports and Places to which His Majesty's Subjects may resort, and wherein they may be resident in considerable numbers, for the purposes of Trade or otherwise; be it therefore enacted, That at any Foreign Port or Place in which a Chaplain is now, or shall at any future time be resident and regularly employed in the Celebration of Divine Service, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, and maintained by any voluntary Subscription or Rate, levied among or upon His Majesty's Subjects resorting to or residing at such Foreign Port or Place, or by any Rate or Duty levied under the Authority of any of the Acts hereinafter repealed, it shall and may be lawful for any Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to an Order for that Purpose issued by His Majesty through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay from Time to Time, for and towards the Maintenance and Support of any such Chaplain as aforesaid, or for and towards defraying the Expenses incident to the due Celebration of Divine Service in any such Churches and Chapels, or for and towards the maintaining any such Burial Grounds as aforesaid, or for and towards the Interment of any of His Majesty's Subjects in any such Burial Grounds, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in any one Year the Amount of the Sum or Sums of Money which during that Year may have been raised at such Port or Place for the said several Purposes, or any of them, by any such voluntary Subscription or Rate as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul shall, once in each Year, transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, an Account, made up to the Thirty-first Day of December, in the Year next preceeding, of all the Sums of Money actually raised at any such Port or Place as aforesaid, for the several Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, by any such voluntary Subscription or Rate as aforesaid, and of all Sums of Money by him actually paid and expended for such Purposes, or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which Accounts shall by such Principal Secretary of State be transmitted to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the time being, who shall give to any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid, Credit for all sums of Money not exceeding the amount aforesaid, by them disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the Purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

When voluntary Contributions towards erecting Churches, Hospitals, or providing Burial Grounds in any Place where Consuls are resident, such Consuls are authorized to advance a Sum equal to the Amount of such Contributions.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case any of His Majesty's Subjects shall, by voluntary Subscriptions among themselves, raise and contribute such a Sum of Money as shall be requisite for defraying one half part of the Expense of erecting, purchasing, or hiring any Church or Chapel or Building, to be appropriated for the Celebration of Divine Service, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, or for defraying one-half part of the Expense of erecting, purchasing, or hiring any building to be used as a Hospital for the Reception of His Majesty's Subjects, or for defraying one-half the Expense of purchasing or hiring any ground to be used as a place of Interment for His Majesty's Subjects at any Foreign Port or Place wherein any Consul-General or Consul appointed by His Majesty shall be resident, then and in any such Case it shall and may be lawful for such Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any Order to be for that Purpose issued by His Majesty through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay, for and towards the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole, in any one Year, the Amount of the Money raised in that Year by any such voluntary Contribution as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid, shall, in like manner, once in every year, transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, an Account, made up to the Thirty-first Day of December in the Year next preceding, of all the Sums of Money actually raised at any such Port or Place as aforesaid, for the several Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, by any such voluntary Subscription as aforesaid, and of all Sums of Money by him actually paid and expended for such Purposes, or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which Accounts shall by such Principal Secretary of State be transmitted to the Lord High Treasurer, or to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, who shall give to such Consuls-General or Consuls Credit for all Sums of Money not exceeding the Amount aforesaid, by him disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the Purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

His Majesty's Approbation to be first obtained.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no such Order shall be issued as aforesaid through any of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, authorizing the expenditure of Money for the Erection, Purchase, or Hiring of any such new Church or Chapel or Hospital as aforesaid, or for the Purchase or Hiring of any such new Burial-Ground as aforesaid, unless and until such Consul-General or Consul shall first have transmitted to His Majesty, through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Plan of such intended Church or Chapel, Hospital, or Burial-Ground, with an Estimate, upon the Oath of some one or more competent Person or Persons, stating the probable Expense of and Incident to the Erection, Purchase, or Hiring of any such Church, Chapel, Hospital, or Burying-Ground as aforesaid, and unless and until His Majesty shall have signified, through one of His said Principal Secretaries of State, His Approbation of the said Plan and Estimate: Provided also, that no Money shall actually be disbursed by any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, unless and until the Money to be raised by any such Voluntary Subscription as aforesaid, be actually paid up and invested in some public or other sufficient Security, in the joint names of such Consul-General or Consul and Two Trustees appointed for that Purpose by the Persons subscribing the same, or unless or until Two or more of such Subscribers shall enter into good and sufficient security to His Majesty, by Bond or otherwise, that the Amount of such Subscriptions shall actually be paid for the purposes aforesaid, by a certain Day to be specified in every such Bond or Security, and which Bond or Security shall be preserved in the Office of such Consul-General or Consul, and shall by him be cancelled and delivered back to the Parties entering into the same, their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, when and so soon as the Condition thereof shall be fully performed and satisfied.

Salaries to Chaplains not to exceed the Sums herein mentioned.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted. That the whole Salary of any Chaplain heretofore appointed or to be appointed to officiate in any such Church or Chapel in any Foreign Port or Place in Europe, shall not exceed in the whole, Five Hundred Pounds by the Year, or in any Foreign Port or Place not in Europe, Eight Hundred Pounds by the Year: Provided also, That all such Chaplains shall be appointed to officiate as aforesaid, by His Majesty, through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, and shall hold such their Offices for and during His Majesty's Pleasure, and no longer.

Meetings of Subscribers to Churches, Chapels, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Consuls General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty to reside and being resident at any Foreign Port or Place wherein any such Church or Chapel, or other Place appropriated for the Celebration of Divine Worship, or Hospital, or any such Burial-Ground as aforesaid, hath heretofore been or shall hereafter be erected, purchased, or hired, by the aid of any voluntary Subscription or Rates collected by or imposed upon His Majesty's Subjects, or some Person or Persons for that Purpose duly authorized by any Writing under the Hand and Seal of any such Consul-General or Consul shall, once at the least in every Year, and more frequently if Occasion shall require, by public Advertisement, or in such other Manner as may be best adapted for insuring publicity, convene and summon a Meeting of all His Majesty's Subjects residing at such Foreign Port or Place as aforesaid, to be holden at the Public Office of such Consul-General or Consul, at some time, not more than Fourteen Days, nor less than Seven Days, next after the Publication of any such Summons; and it shall and may be lawful for all His Majesty's Subjects residing or being at any such Foreign Port or Place as aforesaid, at the time of any such Meeting, and who shall have subscribed any Sum or Sums of Money not less than Twenty Pounds in the whole, nor less than Three Pounds by the Year, for or towards the Purposes before mentioned, or any of them, and have paid up the amount of such their Subscriptions, to be present and vote at any such Meetings; and such Consuls-General or Consuls shall preside at all such Meetings; and in the Event of the Absence of any such Consul-General or Consuls, the Subscribers present at any such Meeting shall, before proceeding to the Despatch of business, nominate one of their Number to preside at such Meeting; and all Questions proposed by the Consul-General, Consul, or Person so nominated as aforesaid to preside in his Absence, to any such Meeting, shall be decided by the Votes of the Majority in Number of the Persons attending and being present thereat; and in the Event of the number of such Votes being equally divided, the Consul-General, Consul, or Person so presiding in his Absence, shall give a casting Vote.

General Meetings may establish Rules for the Management of such Churches, &c., subject to the Sanction of the Consul, who shall transmit the same for His Majesty's Approbation.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any such General Meeting as aforesaid to make and establish, and from Time to Time, as Occasion may require, to revoke alter, and render such General Rules, Orders, and Regulations, as may appear to them to be necessary for the due and proper Use and Management of such Churches, Chapels, Hospitals, and Burial-Grounds as aforesaid, or for the proper Control over and Management of such Churches, Chapels, Hospitals, Burial-Grounds as aforesaid, or for the proper Control over and Expenditure of the Money raised by any such subscription as aforesaid, or otherwise in relation to the Matters aforesaid, as may be necessary for carrying into Execution the objects of this Act, so far as relates to those matters, or any of them: Provided always, that no such Rule, Order, or Regulation as aforesaid shall be of any Force or Effect, unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul-General or Consul for the Time being, appointed by His Majesty to reside and actually resident at such Foreign Port or Place; and provided also, that the same shall, by such Consul-General or Consul, be transmitted by the first convenient Opportunity for His Majesty's Approbation; and that it shall be and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order to be by him issued through One of His Principal Secretaries of State, either to confirm or disallow any such Rules, Orders, and Regulations, either in the whole or in part, and to make such Amendments and Alterations in or Additions to the same, or any of them, as to His Majesty shall seem meet, or to suspend for any Period of Time the Execution thereof, or any of them, or otherwise to direct or prevent the execution thereof, or any of them, in such Manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet; and all Orders so to be issued by His Majesty in relation to the Matters aforesaid, through One of His Principal Secretaries of State, shall be recorded in the Office of the said Consul-General or Consul at the Foreign Port or Place to which the same may refer, and shall be of full Force Effect, and Authority upon and over all His Majesty's Subjects there resident.

REGULATIONS FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF BRITISH CHURCH AFFAIRS

At Foreign Ports and Places.

Made and issued by Her Majesty, through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, under the authority of the Act 6 Geo. IV., Cap. 87.

I. It is the duty of every Consul of Her Majesty, residing at a foreign port where a British chapel is maintained under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap 87, to pay strict attention to the provisions of that Act, an extract from which is hereunto prefixed; and all British subjects residing at such port, ought in like manner to make themselves acquainted with the same.

II. It will be the duty of Her Majesty's Consul, to see that the orders of the Secretary of State, in regard to the matters to which the above-mentioned Act applies, are obeyed. If they are not obeyed, the allowance granted by Her Majesty's Government will be discontinued.

III. Two general meetings of British residents are to be held in each year at the British Consulate. The Consul will summon those meetings by giving public notice thereof seven days at least before the day of meeting.

IV. The first annual meeting must be held early in the year, and at that Meeting a Committee should be appointed to superintend the temporal affairs of the Church. This Committee is to consist of three officers: namely, a treasurer and two trustees. These three officers are to be elected by a majority of the votes of persons present at such meetings.

V. The Committee will collect subscriptions, and will defray the ordinary expenses of the Church; will carry into effect the resolutions of the general meetings; will attend to any ordinary business connected with Church matters; will examine into any measure which it may be desirable for the General Meetings to adopt; and will report thereupon to the meetings. But such Committee is not empowered to make any regulations; to incur any extraordinary expenditure; nor to take any steps which these regulations do not specifically authorize, without having first obtained the sanction of a general meeting of British Residents; and no meetings, excepting the general meetings, held according to the provisions of the Act, will have the power of making rules and regulations, or of passing resolutions upon subjects connected with the temporal interests of the Church.

VI. At the second general meeting in each year, which should be held towards the close of the year, the Committee will render their accounts, and will make to the meeting a report on the affairs of the Church.

VII. Extraordinary general meetings may be summoned, and held at any time during the year, when the Consul may have any official communication to make to the residents, or when two or more subscribers, entitled to vote, shall make a requisition to the Consul to summon such a Meeting, and shall state the subjects which they may wish thereof to bring under consideration.

VIII. Any person who has subscribed 20*l.*, either in one sum, or by an aggregate of several sums, for the purposes mentioned in the Act, is entitled to be present and to vote at general meetings, during the first year after the 20*l.* shall have been so paid; and such person will become entitled to be present and to vote in each subsequent year for which he shall have made a further payment of 3*l.* But no person can be entitled to be present, or to vote at any such meeting, who shall not have actually made such payments before the notice for such meeting shall have been issued by the Consul, and who shall not have been domiciled in the place for six months. And in case no person shall have qualified himself to be present and to vote at general meetings, the management of the Church affairs will devolve entirely on the Consul, who will appoint a Committee to superintend the affairs of the Church under his direction.

IX. All British subjects resorting to or residing at a Foreign Port or Place, where a British Church Establishment is maintained under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87, have a right to subscribe towards the maintenance of such Church Establishment, and the Treasurer cannot refuse to receive such subscriptions.

X. General meetings have the power of making rules and regulations. All rules, regulations, proceedings, and minutes of general meetings, are to be signed by the Consul as Chairman of the meeting, and are to be entered in a register book which must be kept at the British Consulate. Any subscribers entitled to vote may have access to that register book.

XI. Copies of all such rules, regulations, proceedings, and minutes, are to be transmitted by the Consul, to the Secretary of State, by the first convenient opportunity, for the approbation of Her Majesty.

XII. It is the duty of the Consul to see that the provisions of the Act of Parliament are strictly complied with; and for this purpose it is expressly enacted by the 16th section of the Act, that "no rule, order, or regulations, shall be of any force or effect unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul." The proceedings of the Committee, therefore, as well as the proceedings of general meetings, must be sanctioned by the Consul. But as the Consul's instructions enjoin him to promote peace, harmony, and good-will amongst Her Majesty's subjects, he will not unnecessarily oppose any measure which the residents may be desirous of adopting. If he should judge such measure to be inexpedient, or contrary to the interests of Her Majesty's service, he should abstain from sanctioning the measure, and should refer it to the Secretary of State, whose decision thereupon will be final.

XIII. The Act of Parliament gives no power to the Residents to interfere with the spiritual administration of the Church; this must be left to the Chaplain who is accountable to the Crown for his proceedings. On the other hand, the Act gives no power to the Chaplain to interfere in the temporal administration of Church affairs; these matters must be left to the general meetings of British residents.

XIV. Only one Chaplain, is to be attached to each Church to which an allowance is granted by Her Majesty's Government under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87.

XV. All Chaplains who are appointed under the Act, hold such their offices for and during the pleasure of the Crown, and no longer; and the pleasure of the Crown is to be signified to them by the Secretary of State.

XVI. Sacramental alms and oblations are to be distributed by the Chaplain, and are not to be entered in the Treasurer's accounts.

XVII. All Church accounts are to be kept in the currency of the country in which the chapel is situated; but when those accounts are submitted to Her Majesty's Government, they must be rendered in the form which is annexed to these regulations, and the equivalent of the principal items inserted in the accounts must be stated in British sterling money, at the average exchange of the year.

XVIII. Her Majesty's Government is authorized, by the Act of Parliament, to grant in each year, to British Church Establishments at foreign ports, sums not exceeding the amount actually raised during the year by voluntary subscription or by rate among Her Majesty's subjects resident at such ports. Her Majesty's Government will not, however, always grant the full amount authorized by the Act, but will grant only such amount as may be deemed expedient by the Secretary of State, after he shall have examined the Church accounts. Those accounts must be rendered to Her Majesty's Government as soon as possible after the 31st of December in each year.

XIX. The Consul and the Chaplain are to recollect that the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87, which authorizes Her Majesty's Government to afford pecuniary assistance to British chapels at foreign ports, does not allude to, and therefore will not render valid, any marriage between British subjects, or between a British subject and a foreigner, which may be solemnized in such chapels, unless such marriage be declared or deemed valid by some other law of the United Kingdom.

XX. The preceding Regulations respecting the management of Church affairs are also to be applied to the management of the affairs of British burial grounds provided at foreign ports under the provisions of the Act 6 Geo. IV, c. 87. The affairs of the burial ground should, however, be kept distinct from the Church affairs. The annual expense of maintaining such burial grounds in order should be paid by fees on interments; and whenever these fees produce a surplus beyond the expenses, such surplus must be in British Government or other public sufficient security in the joint names of the Consul and of two Trustees; and no portion of such surplus can be applied to any other purposes than the repairs of the burial ground, without the previous sanction of the Secretary of State, signified through the Consul. The interests on money so invested should annually be received, and should be carried to the credit of the burial ground fund; and a report of the state of this fund, together with the burial ground accounts, must be sent off to the Secretary of State, as soon as possible after the 31st of December in each year.

XXI. These Regulations are to be recorded in the office of the Consul and shall be of full force, effect, and authority over all Her Majesty's subjects resident at

ACT TO ENABLE BRITISH DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR AGENTS ABROAD TO ADMINISTER OATHS AND DO NOTARIAL ACTS.

Act 18 & 19 Vic., Cap. XLII.—July 2, 1855.

WHEREAS by an Act of the 6th Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter 87,* Powers are given to British Consuls General and Consuls to administer Oaths and do Notarial Acts in the Foreign Places to which they are appointed; and it is expedient that the like Powers should be given to Ambassadors and other Diplomatic Agents and to Vice-Consuls and Consular Agents Abroad: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Oaths may be administered by Ambassadors and other British Ministers Abroad.

I. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for every British Ambassador, Envoy, Minister, Chargé d'Affaires, or Secretary of Embassy or of Legation exercising his Functions in any Foreign Country, and for every British Vice-Consul, Acting Consul, Pro-Consul, or Consular Agent (as well as every Consul General or Consul) exercising his Functions in any Foreign Place, whenever he shall be thereto required, and whenever he shall see necessary, to administer in such Foreign Country or Place any Oath or to take any Affidavit or Affirmation from any Person whomsoever, and also to do and perform in such Foreign Country or Place all and every Notarial Acts or Act which any Notary Public could or might be required and is by Law empowered to do within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every such Oath, Affidavit, or Affirmation, and every such Notarial Act, administered, sworn, affirmed, had, or done by or before such Ambassador, Envoy, Minister, Chargé d'Affaires, Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Vice-Consul, Acting Consul, Pro-Consul, or Consular Agent, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, and shall be of like Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Oath, Affidavit, or Affirmation, or Notarial Act, respectively, had been administered, sworn, affirmed, had, or done before any Justice of the Peace or Notary Public in any part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or before any other legal or competent Authority of the like Nature.

Affidavits taken before Ambassadors, &c., abroad, may be used in Courts in the United Kingdom.

II. Affidavits and Affirmations so taken as aforesaid under the said Act of King George the Fourth or this Act shall and may be received, read, and made use of in and before any Court of Law or Equity or other Judicature whatever in any Part of the United Kingdom, and the Judges and Officers thereof, in or in relation to any Action, Suit, Cause, Matter, or Proceeding in or before any such Court or Judicature, in like Manner, and shall be of the same Force and Effect as Affidavits and Affirmations taken in or before such Court or Judicature, or by any Person duly Commissioned or authorized by such Court or Judicature to take such Affidavits or Affirmations, and shall be filed and dealt with accordingly.

Documents to be admitted in Evidence without Proof of the Seal or Signature of the Ambassador or other official Person.

III. Any Document purporting to have affixed, impressed, or subscribed thereon or thereto the Seal and Signature of any British Ambassador, Envoy, Minister, Chargé d'Affaires, Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, Acting Consul, Pro-Consul, or Consular Agent, in testimony of any such Oath, Affidavits, Affirmation, or Act having been administered, sworn, affirmed, had or done by or before him, shall be admitted in Evidence without Proof of any such Seal and Signature being the Seal and Signature of the Person whose Seal and Signature the same purport to be, or of the official Character of such Person.

Persons swearing or affirming falsely guilty of Perjury.

IV. Any Person knowingly and wilfully making any false Oath, Affidavit, or Affirmation before any Person having Authority to administer such Oath or take such Affidavit or Affirmation under the said Act of King George the Fourth or this Act, shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and such Offender may be charged, proceeded against, tried, and dealt with in any County or Place in the United Kingdom in the same manner in all respects as if the Offence had been committed in such County or Place.

Persons forging Seal or Signature guilty of Felony.

V. If any person shall forge any such Seal or Signature as aforesaid, or shall tender in Evidence any such Document as aforesaid with a false or counterfeit Seal or Signature thereto, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, he shall be guilty of Felony, and shall upon Conviction be liable to Penal Servitude for the Term of Four Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years nor less than One Year; and whenever any such Document has been admitted in Evidence by virtue of this Act, the Court or the Person who has admitted the same may, at the Request of any Party against whom the same is so admitted in Evidence, direct that the same shall be impounded and be kept in the Custody of some Officer of the Court or other Proper Person for such Period, and subject to such Conditions, as to the said Court or Person shall seem meet; and every Person charged with committing any Felony under this Act may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in the County, District, or Place in which he may be apprehended or be in Custody; and every Accessory before or after the Fact to any such Offence may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced and his Offence laid and charged to have been committed, in any County, District, or Place in which the principal Offender may be tried.

CONSULAR ACT.

Act 6 Geo. IV, c. 87—5th July, 1825.

An Act to regulate the payment of Salaries and Allowances to British Consuls at Foreign Ports and the Disbursements at such Ports for certain public purposes.

His Majesty may grant Salaries to Consuls.

WHEREAS the Provision which has been hitherto made for the Maintenance and Support of the Consuls General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty to reside within the Dominions of Sovereigns and Foreign States in Amity with His Majesty, out of the Money applicable under the Third Class of His Majesty's Civil List, as specified in the Schedule annexed to an Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the support of His Majesty's Household, and for the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," is inadequate to the Maintenance and Support of such Consuls General and Consuls; and it is expedient to make further and due Provision for that purpose; be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to grant to all or any of the Consuls General or Consuls appointed by His Majesty to reside within any of the Dominions of any Sovereign or Foreign State or Power in Amity with His Majesty, such reasonable Salaries as to His Majesty shall seem meet, and by and with such advice as aforesaid, from Time to Time to alter, increase, or diminish any such Salaries or Salary as Occasion may require.

Terms on which Salaries shall be granted.—Leave of Absence.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Salaries shall be issued and paid to such Consuls General and Consuls without Fee or Deduction: Provided always, that all such Salaries as aforesaid be granted for and during His Majesty's Pleasure, and not otherwise, and be held and enjoyed by such Consuls General and Consuls as aforesaid, so long only as they shall be actually resident at the Places at which they may be so appointed to reside, and discharging the Duties of such their Offices: Provided nevertheless, that in case His Majesty shall, by any Order to be for that Purpose issued through One of His Principal Secretaries of State, grant to any such Consul General or Consul as aforesaid Leave of Absence from the Place to which he may be so appointed as aforesaid, such Consul General or Consul shall be entitled to receive the Whole, or such Part as to His Majesty shall seem meet, of the Salary accruing due and payable during and in respect of such Period of Absence as aforesaid.

Salaries so granted to be in lieu of Salaries and Fees formerly paid.—From Jan. 1, 1826, Consuls not to take, on account of their Services, any other than the Fees hereinafter mentioned.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Salaries so to be granted by His Majesty as aforesaid shall be taken and received by the said Consuls General and Consuls in lieu of and as a Compensation for all Salaries heretofore granted to them or any of them, and all Fees of Office and Gratuities heretofore demanded, received, or taken by them of or from the Masters or Commanders of British Ships and Vessels, or of or from any other Persons or Person, for or in respect of any Duties or Services by such Consuls General or Consuls done, performed, or rendered, for or to any such Masters or Commanders, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid; and that no such Consuls General or Consuls as aforesaid shall, from and after the 1st Day of January, 1826, be entitled for or by reason or on account of any Act, Matter, or Thing by him done or performed in the Execution of such his Office, or for on account of any Service by him rendered to any Masters or Commanders of British Ships or Vessels, or to any other Person or Persons, in the Execution of such his Office, to ask, demand, have, receive, or take any Fees, Recompense, Gratuity, Compensation, or Reward, or any Sum or Sums of Money save as hereinafter is excepted.

Certain Fees allowed to be taken as mentioned in the Tables A. and B. annexed.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for all Consuls General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty, and resident within the Dominions of any Sovereign, or any Foreign State or Power in Amity with His Majesty, to accept, take, and receive the several Fees particularly mentioned in the Tables to this present Act annexed, marked with the Letters (A.) and (B.), for and in respect or on account of the several Matters and Things, and Official Acts and Deeds particularly mentioned in the said Schedules; and That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, from Time to Time as occasion may require, to increase or diminish, or wholly to abolish, all or any of the Fees aforesaid, and to establish and authorize the Payment of any greater or smaller or new or additional Fees or Fee, for or in respect of the several matters and Things mentioned in the said Schedules or any of them, or for or in respect of any other Matters or Things or Matter or Thing to be by any such Consul General or Consul done or performed in the execution of such his Office.

Penalty on Consuls demanding more Fees than specified in the Schedule or specified in any Order in Council.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case any Consul General or Consul, appointed by His Majesty as aforesaid, shall, by himself or Deputy, or by any Person authorized thereto in his Behalf, ask, demand, receive, take, or accept, for or by reason or on account of any Matter or Thing by him done or performed in the Execution of such his Office, or for or on account or under pretence or by reason of any Service or Duty by him rendered, done, or performed in such his Office for any Person or Persons whatsoever, any other or greater Fee, Reward, Gratuity, Gift, or Remuneration than is mentioned and specified in the said Schedule, or than shall be sanctioned and specified in or by any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, the Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit and become liable to pay to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, any Sum of Sterling British Money, not exceeding the Amount of the Salary of such Person for One Year, nor less than the Twelfth Part of such annual Salary, at the Discretion of the Court in which such Penalty may be recovered, and shall moreover upon a Second Conviction for any such Offence forfeit such his Office, and for ever after become incapable of serving His Majesty in the same or the like Capacity.

Tables of Fees to be exhibited at Custom Houses.

VI. And be it further enacted, That a Printed Copy or the Tables of Fees allowed by this Act, or which may or shall be sanctioned or allowed by any Order to be made in pursuance of this Act, by His Majesty in Council, shall be exhibited in a conspicuous Manner, for the Inspection of all Persons, in the Custom House in the Port of London, and in all other Custom Houses in the several Ports and Harbours of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that printed copies thereof shall, by the Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs in all such Ports and Harbours as aforesaid, be delivered gratuitously, and without Fee or Reward, to every Master or Commander of any Ship and Vessel clearing out of any such Port or Harbour, and demanding a Copy thereof.

Tables of Fees to be exhibited at Consul's Office.

VII. And be it further enacted, That a Copy of the said Schedule or Table of Fees to this present Act annexed, or which may be established and authorized by any such Order or Orders in Council, as aforesaid, shall be hung up and exhibited in a conspicuous Place in the Public Offices of all Consuls General or Consuls appointed by His Majesty in the Foreign Ports or Places to which they may be so appointed, for the inspection of all Persons interested therein; and any Consul General or Consul omitting or neglecting to exhibit any such Copy of the said Schedules in such his Public Office, or refusing to permit the same to be inspected by any Person or Persons interested therein, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum of British Sterling Money not exceeding One Half the Amount of the salary of such person for one year, nor less than the Twelfth part of such annual salary, at the discretion of the Court in which such penalty may be recovered.

Allowances in the nature of Superannuation.

VIII. And whereas it is expedient that His Majesty should be enabled to grant to the said Consuls General and Consuls, appointed as aforesaid, Allowances in the Nature of Superannuation or Reward for meritorious Public Services, be it further enacted That all the Clauses, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, and Forfeitures contained and declared in an Act passed in the 50th Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to direct that Accounts of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances should be annually laid before Parliament, and to regulate and control the granting and paying of such Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances;" and in another Act passed in the 3rd Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act passed in the 50th Year of His late Majesty, for directing that Accounts of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances shall be annually laid before Parliament, and for regulating and controlling the granting and paying of such Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances;" and in another Act passed in the 5th Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the 3rd Year of His present Majesty, respecting Superannuation Allowances," shall be and the same are hereby extended to the said Consuls General and Consuls, so far as such Clauses, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, can be applied to the Cases of such several Persons respectively, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

Allowances during War to be such as His Majesty in Council shall direct.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall at any Time happen that by reason of any War which may hereafter arise between His Majesty and any Sovereign, or Foreign State or Power, within the Dominions of whom any such Consul General or Consul as aforesaid shall be appointed to reside, he shall be prevented from residing, and shall in fact cease to reside at the Place to which he may be so appointed, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to grant to any such Consul General or Consul, who may have served His Majesty in that Capacity for any Period not less than 3 Years nor more than 10 Years next preceding the commencement of any such War as aforesaid, a special Allowance not exceeding the Proportion of their respective Salaries to which such Consuls General and Consuls would be entitled under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the 3rd Year of His present Majesty's Reign, in case the Period of their respective Service had exceeded 10 Years and had not exceeded 15 Years: Provided always, that in case any such Consul General or Consul shall have served in such his Office for the Space of 10 Years and more, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any such Order in Council as aforesaid, to grant to him or them such a Proportion of his or their respective Salaries, which by the said recited Act is authorized to be granted as a Superannuation Allowance, according to the several Periods of Service exceeding 10 Years, in the said Act of the 3rd Year of His present Majesty's Reign.

[For §§ X to XV relating to the support of Churches, Chapels, &c., abroad, see p. 225.]

Repeal of certain Acts, viz.:

XVI. And whereas it is expedient that the several Acts of Parliament hereinafter mentioned should be repealed; be it therefore enacted, That a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled "An Act for more equal paying and better collecting certain small Sums therein mentioned, for Relief of shipwrecked Mariners and distressed Persons (His Majesty's Subjects) in the Kingdom of Portugal, and for other pious and charitable Purposes usually contributed to by the Merchants trading to Portugal;" and a certain other Act, made and passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for the more equal paying and better collecting certain small Sums for Relief of shipwrecked Mariners and distressed Persons (His Majesty's Subjects) in the Port of Cadiz and Port of Saint Mary's, in the Kingdom of Spain, and for other Uses usually contributed to by the Merchants trading to the said Ports;" and a certain other Act made and passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of the said King George the Second, intituled "An Act for collecting at the Port of Leghorn certain small Sums of Money to which the Merchants trading there have usually contributed for the Relief of shipwrecked Mariners, Captives, and other distressed Persons (His Majesty's Subjects), and for other charitable and Public Uses;" and a certain other Act, made and passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for altering and extending the said recited Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of King George the First, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Application of Duties raised under the recited Acts repealed.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall be and remain in the Hands of any Collector or Treasurer or other Person, arising from any Duties leviable under the several Acts hereby repealed, or any of them, and which shall not have been applied to the Purposes or in manner directed by the said Acts respectively, shall by such Collector, Treasurer, or other Person be paid over to the Consul General or Consul at the Port or Place where the same shall have been received; and all and every such Sums and Sum which shall be so paid to and received by any such Consul General or Consul, and all other Arrears of Money arising from any such Duties which shall be in the Hands of any such Consul General or Consul, shall be paid, applied, and disposed of in such Manner, and to and for such Public Purposes, as shall be directed by any One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Consuls to have Credit for Money disbursed for shipwrecked and distressed Persons.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Consuls General and Consuls shall be allowed and have Credit in any Accounts by them rendered, through One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, for all such Sums of Money as shall by any such Consul General or Consul be disbursed and expended towards the Succour and Relief of Mariners shipwrecked and taken in War, or other distressed Persons being Subjects of His Majesty, and resorting to the Port or Place at which any such Consul General or Consul may be appointed to reside: Provided always, that such Sums of Money be so disbursed and expended in pursuance of and in conformity to any Special or General Rules and Regulations to be for that Purpose made and prescribed by His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by Him for that Purpose issued, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and that an Account of the Particulars of all such Expenditure shall by the first convenient Opportunity be transmitted by such Consul General or Consul for His Majesty's Information, through One of His Principal Secretaries of State.

Accounts and Estimates to be laid before Parliament.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That within Six Week next after the Commencement of each Session of Parliament there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament Copies of all Orders which may have been made, since the Commencement of the last preceding Session of Parliament, by His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council in pursuance of this Act, together with an account of all Salaries which since the commencement of such next preceding Session of Parliament, may have been granted by His Majesty to any Consuls General or Consuls, by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, together with an Estimate specifying the total Amount of the Money to be required for the Payment of the Salaries of all such Consuls General or Consuls respectively, for One Year from the Fifth day of January preceding the Date of such Estimate, and also for all contingent Charges and Expenses connected with the Public Duties and Establishments of such Consuls General or Consuls, after deducting the Amount provided on account of the Payment of such Consuls General or Consuls out of the Money applicable under the Third Class of His Majesty's Civil List, as specified in the Schedule annexed to an Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and for the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland."

*Oaths may be administered by Consuls.**

XX. And whereas it is expedient that every Consul General or Consul appointed by His Majesty at any Foreign Port or Place should in all Cases have the Power of administering an Oath or Affirmation whenever the same shall be required, and should also have Power to do all such notarial acts as any Notary Public may do; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any and every Consul General or Consul appointed by His Majesty at any Foreign Port or Place, whenever he shall be thereto required, and whenever he shall see necessary, to administer at such Foreign Port or Place any Oath, or take any Affidavit or Affirmation from any Person or Persons whomsoever, and also to do and perform at such Foreign Port or Place all and every notarial Acts and Act which any Notary Public could or might be required and is by Law empowered to do within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every such Oath, Affidavit, or Affirmation, and every such notarial Act, administered, sworn, affirmed, had, or done by or before such Consul General or Consul, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, and shall be of like Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as if any such Oath, Affidavit, or Affirmation, or notarial Act respectively, had been administered, sworn, affirmed, had, or done, before any Justice of the Peace or Notary Public in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or before any other legal or competent Authority of the like Nature.

* See also page 240.

Recovery of Penalties.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties incurred under or imposed by this Act shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered by any Person or Persons who may sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the name of His Majesty's Attorney General, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance, shall be allowed.

Commencement.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the several Clauses, Matters, and Things herein contained, shall take effect from the First Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, except where any other Commencement is particularly directed.

ORDER IN COUNCIL REGULATING THE ADMISSION OF PERSONS TO THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, May 21. 1855;

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, it is expedient to make provision for testing, according to fixed rules, the qualifications of the young men who may from time to time be proposed to be appointed to the junior situations in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable Sir Edward Ryan, Assistant Comptroller-General of the Exchequer: John George Shaw Lefevre, Esq., † Companion of the Bath, (Clerk Assistant to the House of Lords; and Edward Romilly, Esq., † Chairman of the Board of Audit; or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them or any of them; shall be Commissioners for conducting the examination of the young men so proposed to be appointed to any of the junior situations in the Civil Establishments as aforesaid, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty, and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties hereinafter assigned to them.

And it is hereby ordered that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury do prepare and submit to Parliament an estimate for the remuneration of a Secretary to the said Commissioners, and of such Examiners and others as may be required to assist in the performance of their duties.

And it is hereby ordered, that all such young men as may be proposed to be appointed to any junior situation in any department of the Civil Service shall, before they are admitted to probation, be examined by or under the directions of the said Commissioners, and shall receive from them a certificate of qualification for such situation.

And it shall be the duty of the Commissioners, in respect of every such candidate, before granting any such certificate as aforesaid—

1st, to ascertain that the candidate is within the limits of age prescribed in the department to which he desires to be admitted;

2nd, to ascertain that the candidate is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties:

3rd, to ascertain that the character of the candidate is such as to qualify him for public employment; and 4th, to ascertain that the candidate possesses the requisite knowledge and ability for the proper discharge of his official duties.

The Rules applicable to each department under each of the above heads should be settled, with the assistance of the Commissioners, according to the discretion of the chief authorities of the department; but, except that candidates for admission to any of the junior situations in any branch of the Civil Service will be required to obtain certificates of qualification as aforesaid, such Examining Board shall not make any alteration in respect to the nomination or appointment of candidates by those who are or may be charged with the duty of nomination and appointment.

After the candidate has passed his Examination, and received his certificate of qualification from the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the chief of the department for which he is intended, and he shall not be finally appointed to the public service unless upon satisfactory proofs of his fitness being furnished to the chief of the department after 6 months' probation.

And it is, lastly, hereby ordered, that in case the chief of any department considers it desirable to appoint to any situation, for which there are no prescribed limits of age, a person of mature age, having acquired special qualifications for the appointment in other pursuits, such person shall not, in virtue of this Order, be required to obtain any certificate from the said Commissioners in order to obtaining such appointment, but the chief of the department shall cause the appointment of any person not previously examined to be formally recorded as having been made on account of special qualifications.

(Signed) WM. L. BATHURST.

DYSENTERY, CHOLERA, FEVER, AGUE, &c. CHLORODYNE.

- Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The Times, July 13, 1864.
- Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.
- Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. Extract from Medical Times, January 12, 1866.—“Is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not ‘supply a want and fill a place.’”
- Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is the best and most certain remedy in COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION, NEURALGIA, RHEUMATISM, &c.
- Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is a certain cure in CHOLERA, DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, COLIC, &c.
- Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—“So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.”
- From A. MONTGOMERY, ESQ., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—“Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other remedies had failed.”
- Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. CAUTION.—None genuine without the words “Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne” on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle. Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury London. The immense demand enables the proprietors to reduce the price; it is now sold in bottles, 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s.

PATENT DUPLEX PRESS.

SIMPLICITY, DURABILITY, CHEAPNESS, POWER.

For Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c.

MESSRS. HARRISON & SONS, Wholesale Stationers, Parliamentary Printers, &c., beg to call attention to the Patent Duplex Press, for Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c., which for portability, durability, power, and simplicity of construction, and consequent cheapness, is unrivalled.

So little force is needed to work the Patent Duplex Press that it requires no fixing, and a stand is not necessary; it may be placed on an ordinary table or desk.

It is constructed without screw or springs, the power being produced by a cam acting on a bell crank lever. From the extreme simplicity of its mechanism, it can be supplied at one-half the price of an ordinary screw press.

The Patent Duplex Press can be fitted with a lock, so as to prevent its being used by an unauthorized person.

ACCOUNT BOOKS,

Made of the best description of Paper, well Ruled and Printed, and the
MATERIALS USED FOR BINDING ARE OF SUPERIOR QUALITY, ESPECIALLY THE RUSSIA, CALF, & VELLUM.

All best Books are made with patent flexible backs, and warranted to open perfectly flat, without danger of the joints or sections giving way.

 GENERAL DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING ACCOUNT BOOKS.

The Size of Paper may be given in inches.

Description of Paper—Blue Laid Hand-made is always used, unless instructions are given to the contrary.

Thickness of Book—The number of Pages should be given; two pages constitute a leaf or folio, and two leaves or folios or four pages form a sheet.

Pattern for Ruling—Patterns of ordinary Rulings are on next page; if any other be required, a whole sheet should be sent.

Description of Binding—Russia, Calf, Vellum, with single or double Russia Bands, Basil, Forril, half Russia, half Calf, half Vellum, half Basil, with cloth or paper sides.

Lettering—If on Back or Side, or both.

Indexes—Ruled blue lines, unless a pattern for the Ruling be sent, and are bound up with the Book, unless ordered in a separate binding. The number of leaves to each letter should be stated.

Paging or Folioing—Care should be taken to state distinctly whether the Book is to be paged or folioed; if paged, the numbers run consecutively, thus: 1) (2; if folioed, both pages in the opening have the same number, thus: 1) (1).

These Presses for durability and simpleness have achieved a certain reputation. The action is simple, and the result all that can be desired. One of the advantages is that an unlimited number of stamps can be fitted to one Press, and as many colored inks as required by having separate pads, which can be changed instantly. They surpass all others in cleanliness. They are also used for marking Linen.

NEW BOOKS AND NEW EDITIONS.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage of the British Empire. New edition, corrected throughout, complete in one volume, royal 8vo., handsomely bound in cloth. Price 38s.

This Peerage and Baronetage is the only complete book of the kind extant. It gives the historical and genealogical account and present state of all the Peers and Baronets, with their armorial bearings engraved and described; it furnishes full details respecting all the Archbishops and Bishops and their families; it enters fully into the subject of precedence, and sets forth all the Rolls, Authorizations, and Usages, which regulate it; Foreign Titles borne by British Subjects; Peerages recently Extinct and Dormant; the Orders of Knighthood, with their Insignia depicted and explained; the List of Knights and Knights Bachelors; the Mottoes of all the Peers and Baronets, with Translations and Illustrations; and an Alphabetical List of the Seats and Mansions. The above are the main features of the work, and such a combined and immense amount of information as this book contains would be vainly sought for in any other Peerage or Baronetage past or present.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland. Fifth edition, revised, enlarged, and corrected throughout, complete in two volumes. Handsomely bound in cloth, uniform with the Peerage and Baronetage. Price £3 3s. 0d.

'A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution.'—Post. "The whole forms a fine and full account of the Gentry of these realms—of that class 'who,' says Sir Bernard in his preface, 'possess, though undistinguished by hereditary titles, an undeniable right, from antiquity of race, extent of property, and brilliancy of achievements, to take foremost rank among the lesser nobility of Europe.'"—Illustr. Lond. News.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Encyclopædia of Heraldry, or General Armoury of England, Scotland, and Ireland, comprising a Registry of all Armorial Bearings from the earliest times. Third edition, with a Supplement, cloth. Price 21s.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical History of the Dormant, Abeyant, Forfeited, and Extinct Peerages of the British Empire. Illustrated by Steel Engravings of the principal Arms. New edition, royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 2s.

In this new edition the history of each title is continued to the present time; and the various dignities are traced down to their existing representatives.

"By the publication of this splendid volume, Ulster King of Arms completes the structure of information which he has been so long engaged in rearing, and in whose construction he has displayed not only the accuracy and research of the herald, but the generalization, the appreciation of the historian, and has shown himself possessed, in the midst of the labouriousness of dry details, of a quick, vivid, and poetic fancy. Every thing which tends to individualise history increases its interest, impresses its events upon the memory, and removes it farther from the category of dry and formal study; and such works as those of Sir Bernard Burke lend to the familiar scenes and places suggestive importance difficult to exaggerate."—Morning Post.

Hertslet's Treaties, Laws, &c., relating to Commerce, Navigation, the Slave Trade, Postal Arrangements, Copyright, Extradition, Trade Marks, &c.; wherein are defined the Rights and Privileges of British Subjects Abroad, and of Foreigners in the British Dominions. To which is added an Index of Subjects to the entire Series. 8vo., 30s., Cloth.

Index to Hertslet's Treaties.—An Index

of Subjects to the entire Series (xiii. vols.); forming a complete Digest of all the Engagements existing between Great Britain and Foreign Powers, by Treaty or otherwise, relating to Commerce, Navigation, Extradition, Trade Marks, Marriages, Wills, &c., &c. Compiled by EDWARD HERTSLET, Esq., Librarian and Keeper of the Papers of the Foreign Office. 8vo., on thick Paper, and on one side only, 10s., Cloth.

Foreign Office List for 1872, forming a complete British Diplomatic and Consular Handbook, exhibiting the rank, standing, and various services of every person employed in the Foreign Office, the Diplomatic Corps, and the Consular Body. Also Regulations respecting Examinations, Passports, Foreign Orders, &c. With Maps, showing where Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Ministers, Consuls, and others, are resident abroad; together with a List of Foreign Diplomatic and Consular Representatives within the Queen's Dominions. Compiled by EDWARD HERTSLET, Librarian and Keeper of the Papers, Foreign Office. Corrected throughout, cloth. Price 5s.

"The Foreign Office List gives the most careful notices of every person depending on, or in any way connected with, the Foreign Office, from the Minister to the youngest supernumerary clerk in his department, and from the Ambassador to the Cabinet Messenger. It moreover enlivens the dull monotony of official detail with the biographical notices of the functionaries whose names it records. It is to be found in all the Chancelleries abroad; no Attaché of a Mission, great or small, thinks his library complete without it; and it is one of the first objects that attracts the eye of the British traveller as he waits for his passport visa in a Consul's office." Times (from our own Correspondent).

Colonial Office List for 1872, comprising Historical Notices of the Colonial Dependencies of Great Britain, together with Statistical and other general Information, including the Names and Services of the Principal Officers under the several Colonial Governments. It embodies the Colonial Regulations, the Rules respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Colonial Office, for Ceylon Writerships, and Hong Kong Cadetships; the Pension Minutes of several Colonies, and the Imperial Act under which Pensions are granted to Colonial Governors, with a Map, showing the British Dominions in every part of the World. Compiled under the sanction of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, from Official Records, &c., by WILLIAM ROBINSON, of the Colonial Office. Corrected throughout, cloth. Price 6s.

"The value of this book will be better established by five minutes' reference to its contents, than by five columns of commendation."—English News. "The Editor possesses the fullest means of obtaining the fullest information, and the general design is extremely good."—Spectator. "Among other interesting features is a list of persons now living, who hold, or have held any important Colonial Office. It is a most useful work."—South Australian Register.

War Office List for 1872, compiled by Denham Robinson. Price 4s. 6d.

Freemason's Calendar and Pocket-

Book, for the year 1872, containing, beside the usual matter in other pocket-books, a complete List of all the Regular Lodges, and Royal Arch Chapters, with their places and times of Meeting, corrected from the Books of the United Grand Lodge, and Grand Chapter; and a variety of Articles concerning Masonry. Published for the benefit of the Charity Fund, under the sanction of the United Grand Lodge of England and by the Command of the M.W. Grand Master. Price 2s.

Uniforms to be worn by the Queen's

Household. Published by Authority, cloth. Price 21s.

Uniforms to be worn by Her Majesty's

Civil Servants at Home and in the Colonies.

Published by Authority, cloth. Price 21s.

Large Game Shooting in Thibet and the North-West. By ALEXANDER A. A. KINLOCH, Rifle Brigade. Illustrated by Photographs of Heads and Horns: containing Descriptions of Country, and of the various Animals to be found; together with Extracts from a Journal of several Years' Shooting. Demy 4to., cloth gilt. Price 21s.

- Mr. Kinloch has presented his Himalayan sporting experiences in a book as ornamental as it is instructive. The photographs, 12 in number, of his trophies are extremely well executed; and we should pity the man who could look at them without a feeling of intense desire to follow in Mr. Kinloch's footsteps."—The Asiatic. "Most welcome is the volume of Mr. Kinloch. He has scarcely touched the beaten ground. His passion for sport has carried him into 'fresh fields and pastures new;' and, coupling the enthusiasm of a naturalist with the ardour of a sportsman, he has devoted himself in the untrodden wilds of Thibet, to a consideration of the habits and appearances of the fauna of the East, as well as to the rough pleasure of pursuing the deer and other large animals with which the deserts abound."

Maude; or, The Anglican Sister of Mercy. Edited by MISS WHATELY, Author of "The Life of Archbishop Whately." This is an authentic Narrative, in which MISS WHATELY gives a detailed account of every-day life in an Anglican Sisterhood, with Original Letters, which enable us to judge impartially and fairly of the principles which govern these Institutions. It is a Work peculiarly important at the present time. One vol., post 8vo., cloth.

- "This is not, as the title might import, a tale. The only assumed parts are the names of the persons and places involved in the painful transactions narrated. We commend the book to wide circulation in these times of perilous reaction."—Record. "We are assured that this is a true story. Miss Whately pledges herself to its entire authenticity and absolute truth. Her father, the late Archbishop of Dublin, urged its publication and would have edited it himself if he had lived long enough. Such a testimony to its importance is of no little value. The revelations made are decidedly noteworthy, and the interior of an Anglican sisterhood deserved an exposure."—Spectator.

Cricket. Jerks in from Short Leg.

By QUID. Cricket as a Profession, the Field, Umpires, Cricket Clubs, Cricket Grounds, Cricket Nurseries, Confidence, Temper, a Cricket Dream, Cricket Types, the Spectators, the Ladies, Conclusion, with 90 Illustrations, by W. H. DU BELLEW. One volume, fcap. 4to., cloth gilt. Price 7s. 6d.

- "We have to recommend the book as one that will pleasantly while away an hour during the season itself; and still more pleasantly when the days are short, when the well-oiled bat is quietly resting for the winter in its case. 'Quid's' book is worthy of a place on the same shelf with Cowden Clarke, Felix, and Pycroft."

Shadows of the Clouds, by J. A. Froude,

M.A., Author of "The Nemesis of Faith." Fcp. 8vo., cloth. Price 5s.

"Two tales are comprised in this volume, 'The Spirit's Trials,' and 'The Lieutenant's Daughter;' both are written with great power and undoubted talent. . . . Mr. Froude is no common writer—his style is vivid and emphatic—he touches some of the most secret springs of the heart's passions—he enchains our sympathies."—John Swill. "The work shows evidence of a vigorous and cultivated understanding. 'The Spirit's Trials' is a tale of considerable interest. The characters are felicitously drawn."—Morning Post.

Trade Unions Abroad, and Hints for

Home Legislation. Reprinted from a Report on the Amsterdam Exhibition of Domestic Economy for the Working Classes. By the Hon. T. J. HOVELL-THURLOW. Second Edition. Royal 8vo., cloth. Price 9s.

Eothen. New Edition, Post 8vo.,

cloth, gilt, with Illustrations. Price 6s.

"The best book of Eastern Travel that we know."—Examiner. "Graphic in delineation, animated in style, frank in manner, and artistic in the choice and treatment of subjects selected for presentation."—Spectator. "The author has wit and humour that shed an illuminative gleam on every object which he describes, placing it in the happiest relief. The book is as 'light as light,' and lively as life, yet there are in it passages and scenes which would make most men grave and solemn."—Athenæum.

Flower and Fruit Decoration. By

T. C. MARCH. Demy 8vo. Price 3s. 6d.

Evelina; or, the History of a Young

Lady's entrance into the World. By MISS BURNBY (afterwards Madame D'Arblay). New Edition, with a frontispiece, cloth. Price 3s.

"Fielding never wrote so well—never wrote equal to this book; it is a better picture of life and manners than is to be found anywhere in Fielding."—Dr. Johnson. "I am proud of it: I am proud that a work so commended should be a woman's."—Mrs. Montagu. "Evelina became at once a fashionable novel."—Mrs. Barbauld. "Scholars and Statesmen who contemptuously abandoned the crowd of Romances to Miss Lydia Languish and Miss Sukey Saunter were not ashamed to own that they could not tear themselves away from Evelina."—Lord Macaulay.

How to Work with the Microscope.

By LIONEL S. BEALE, M.B., F.R.S., &c., with 70 Plates, including many new figures, some of which are coloured. 4th edition, very much enlarged, demy 8vo., cloth. Price 21s.

This work is a complete manual of Microscopical Manipulation, and contains a full description of many new processes of investigation, with directions for examining objects under the highest powers.

"The author, both in the text and in the explanations to the engravings, has endeavoured to restrict himself, as far as possible, to giving hints and directions which may be practically useful to the student while he is at work."—Extract from the Preface.

Notes on Nursing: What it is, and what it is not. By FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE. Demy 8vo., limp cloth. Price 3s.

"We have never read any book on any subject on which so much is said, and said so well in a shorter space. . . . There will be a great neglect of duty if Miss Nightingale's admirable work is not so carefully studied that it becomes, in fact, the manual of every sick room."—Times. "These 'Notes' are addressed to women, and every woman in the country ought to read them."—Daily News. "The work is but an inexpensive pamphlet, not costing the price of one bottle of medicine, but it is destined, we trust, to reduce the doctors' bills in many families. . . . To every class, from the highest to the lowest, these 'Notes' are addressed."—Examiner. "Every father of a family should change his silver for these 'Notes' (their price is fixed so moderately he need not change his gold for them), and every member of a family should both hear and try to profit by them. It is not too much to say that no domestic library can be complete without them; and considering the doctors' bills they probably will save him, every Paterfamilias who stupidly neglects to get these 'Notes' will deserve to get a stress laid on his last Latin syllable."—Punch. "We wish it may find its way not only into every hospital and workhouse, but into every school and nursery in the kingdom."—Saturday Review.

Notes on Nursing, for the Labouring

Classes. By FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE. Foolscap 8vo., sewed. Price 6d.

*** This Edition contains a Chapter devoted to "Minding Baby."

Letter on Corpulence, addressed to the Public, by WILLIAM BANTING. Fourth edition, with prefatory remarks by the author, copious information from correspondents, and confirmatory evidence of the benefit of the Dietary system which he recommended to Public Notice. Demy 8vo., sewed. Price 1s.

"The author has made a discovery at which every corpulent man has reason to rejoice."—Post.
 "Banting has become a household word in men's mouths. 'Have you tried Banting?' is as common a question as 'How do you do?'"—Standard.

Bésique. By John Loraine Baldwin,

AND A TREATISE ON THE GAME. By JAMES CLAY. 2nd edition, with alterations and additions. Fcap. 8vo., cloth, gilt edges. Price 3s. 6d.

*** The Laws can also be had separately, in large clear type, on a sheet. Price 3s. 6d., suitable for hanging in Card Rooms.

"There was some confusion in the 'Whist World,' and the necessity of a code of modern laws had become apparent, when a combined effort was made by a committee of some of the most skilful to supply the deficiency. The result of their deliberations is the present little volume. . . . They performed their task with the most decided success. . . . 'A Treatise on the Game,' by Mr. J. Clay, M.P., is appended, and may be read with advantage by the commencing student of whist and the advanced player; and with pleasure even by those who are totally ignorant of it, and have no wish to learn it."—Times. "We have examined the volume at some length, for it is the most able and original contribution to whist literature which has appeared for some time. As a suggestive book—a book calculated to make people think about whist—the treatise of J. C. is second to none."—Field. "Mr. Baldwin's 'Laws of Short Whist' is now indispensable to the good whist player; and from it, by study and practice, the merest tyro may become thoroughly proficient."—Northampton Herald.

"J. B., otherwise John Loraine Baldwin, a great authority on Whist, has devoted his time to a careful study of the game of Bésique, and has succeeded in framing a system, founded on obviously correct principles, by which all players should regulate their game. J. B.'s rules are appealed to as authority, and by their decision all doubts are removed."—Standard. "The Game of Bésique. Mr. John Loraine Baldwin, the editor of the 'Laws of Short Whist,' has just published a treatise on the laws and practice of the new and favourite game of Bésique. This last addition to the resources of card-players, has, in a short time become so popular, that it is said even to threaten the established supremacy of Whist. It has, at least, this advantage over the latter, that it can be played equally well, and on the same principles, by two, three, or four persons; while, in the case of Whist, the two-handed and three-handed games differ essentially from Whist proper."—Times. "A clever and concise little volume on Bésique, pleasantly and lucidly, as well as ably, written, has just appeared from the pen of Mr. John Loraine Baldwin, the authority, par excellence, on the laws of Short Whist."—Globe. "A capital exposition of this popular game, together with a code of Rules, adopted by most of the distinguished families, among whom it is a favourite game, has been written by John Loraine Baldwin, Esq., editor of the 'Laws of Short Whist,' and published by Messrs. Harrison, 59, Pall Mall. The little work comes before the public under most favourable auspices, being dedicated by permission to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and its codes of laws being introduced and adopted in the houses of most of the Nobility in the Kingdom."—Monmouthshire Beacon.

THE SALINE ANTISEPTIC

CHLORALUM

HARMLESS AS COMMON SALT.

NON-POISONOUS

CHLORALUM is an active preservative of organic substances. CHLORALUM is invaluable for purifying the air. It is used in preserving articles of diet, and a few drops will keep milk, fish, or other food, without imparting any deleterious property any more than would be done by the corresponding chloride of sodium or common salt. CHLORALUM is the most active and harmless purifier for babies' feeding bottles, beer casks, dairy utensils, &c. CHLORALUM has been found to remove bad smells which are not readily attacked by other deodorisers. A newly painted room or house is rendered habitable by the suspension of cloths dipped in CHLORALUM, or the exposure of basins containing the liquid. Moreover, CHLORALUM removes the strong odour of onions, garlic, and other agents, which sometimes affect the sweetness of cupboards, meat safes, larders, and other places in dwellings.

Indispensable in the Sick-Room.

Disinfectants at Sea.

The Board of Trade have decided to substitute CHLORALUM for the Solution of Chloride of Zinc, at present included in the scale of medicines and medical stores issued, and caused to be published by this Board in pursuance of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1867."

Invaluable in the Drawing-Room.

CHLORALUM THE BEST STABLE DISINFECTANT.

CHLORALUM will be found invaluable in Hospitals,

Close and Ill-ventilated
Apartments,
Earth Closets,
Dust Bins,
